

Colorado Family Church: Update - Prayers and Support for Ukraine and our Church Family There

Michael and Adonia Hentrich
March 7, 2022

Dear family,

We wanted to share some updates and action points on the situation in Ukraine and our church community there. A couple weeks ago, we identified several families bunkered down in Kiev that needed immediate financial support. We took up an offering and raised $2,632 which was immediately wired to the affected families. We also know that many of you have donated using the online fundraiser that was provided earlier and through other fundraisers. Below are some pictures of the families we are helping and a video update from one of them.

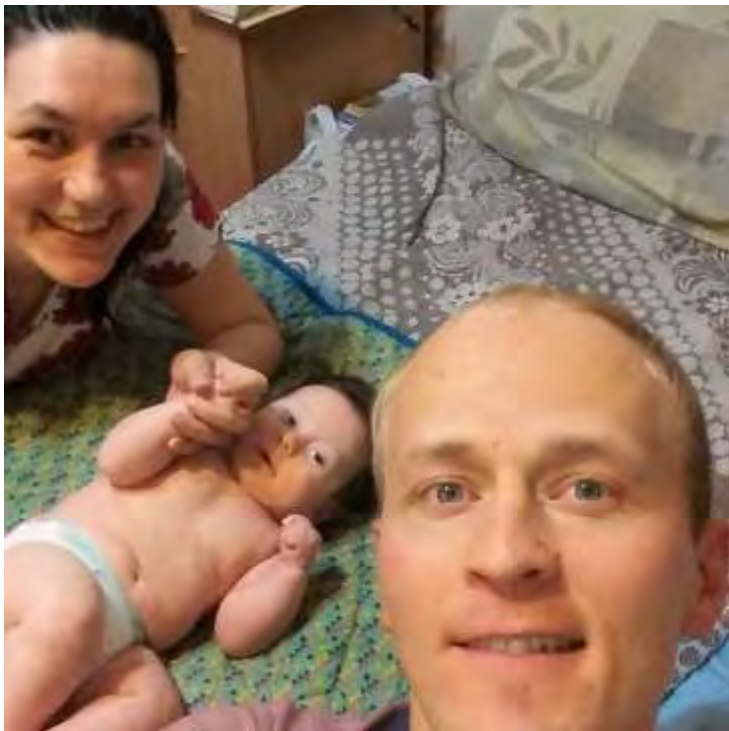

Update from Ihor Korsun

As we watch the situation in Ukraine unfold, most things are still uncertain. However, as the invasion drags on, more and more damage is being done, and many families are losing their homes and livelihoods. Many of you have asked how Sergii's family is doing. They are currently out of the main warzone and are trying to leave the country. Very possibly, we may be receiving them here soon. We are also in touch with other families there, and depending on many factors, we may be receiving some other families in the near future.

We have asked our Ukrainian brother Eugene what we can do to help. Besides the prayer condition and donation campaigns, he has suggested petitions and appeals to local representatives that may be helpful.

Our 21-day prayer condition for the people of Ukraine continues until March 17. These are the prayer points:

Pray for peace to be restored in Ukraine.

Pray for the families that are trapped and fleeing to be safe and cared for

Pray for our church families to be safe and reunited with one another.

Sincerely,

Pastors Mike and Adonia

Support Our Ukrainian Family

Campaign Created by: Claude Aubert

The funds from this campaign will be received by Claude Aubert.

Our Ukrainian brothers and sisters are in continued need of our support! They are very grateful for all the help they have received so far: the financial support as well as the prayers and love. As of this writing, the war is in its eleventh day, and there is no immediate end in sight. The majority of blessed families living in Kyiv and other cities have left to find refuge in safer locations. Some are in Poland; some are close to the Polish border, as in a village near Lviv. A few brothers and sisters have decided to stay behind to protect the church properties in Kyiv and to resist. Two families are trapped in a town near Kyiv in the middle of the war zone.

As a former missionary to Ukraine (1991–1993), I know many of the Ukrainian brothers and sisters and am in contact with them. At the beginning of the invasion I received a request for financial help from one of the church leaders whom I know well from my missionary time and trust completely. She is a wonderful Russian sister, her husband is Ukrainian, and together they have three children. Her fervent desire is to take care of all Ukrainian brothers and sisters. The financial help will go to address immediate needs, and once this war is over, also toward reconstruction.

Please consider making a donation.
Thank you for your generosity!
