Article: National Worship Service Brings Together the Wider UK Community

"The UK community gathered in Tottenham to join together in a national Sunday service in order to worship and share testimonies from recent events in Korea.

"The live worship band, comprised of talented young individuals, opened the national worship service with a variety of worship music in order to raise the atmosphere and give attendees the opportunity to praise God.

"Dr Michael Balcomb welcomed the wider UK community to the service and encouraged attendees to join together in the spirit of worship."

Immediate & Temporary Suspension of Workshops at CheonBo Heaven & Earth Training Centre Due to Coronavirus

Following the ongoing coronavirus outbreak that has greatly affected China and is currently spreading to different countries in the world, the CheonBo Heaven and Earth Training Centre has conducted thorough quarantine, temperature and hygiene control.

However, as a result of the increasing prevalence of the virus worldwide, and for the sake of the safety and health of the members coming to the training center, the HJ Magnolia International Hospital's medical opinion and the directive from the International Headquarters has seen it fit to temporarily suspend the workshops at the training center.

REMINDER: Make the Most of Marriage Online Webinar

The BFD EUME is starting a new initiative called MMM - Make the Most of Marriage.

They will offer monthly webinars with the goal of helping couples to build loving and caring partnerships, with Heavenly Parents at the centre.

The first meeting will be on Tuesday 25th February at 7:30pm GMT.

The webinars are for any blessed couple of any age - a successful partnership needs investment, no matter the years of marriage, and the BFD wants to support it.
