The Seonghwa Ministry is now a part of the Blessed Family Department

"The Seonghwa Ministry's brothers and sisters met in Lancaster Gate on the afternoon of Sunday 10th November. After an initial prayer and reading of True Father's words, Françoise welcomed everyone and gave an update on the ministry. A decisive move in the development of the Seonghwa Ministry (Shwa M) was its acceptance as part of the Blessed Family Department (BFD).

"Jeff Bateman, director of the BFD, was present at the meeting and acknowledged that the Shwa M was filling a much-needed gap. The BFD needs to include the care of our Blessed Families at all stages of life, from birth to the Blessing and to passing to the spirit world. Being a part of the BFD will also facilitate our financial situation, as now donations to the Shwa M can be made to the BFD and will be earmarked to our ministry."

ABC: Report from Meeting in October - June Darby

"It was a damp, gloomy day when we met for our last ABC Seminar, "Insights into the Old Testament". But the Holy Spirit lit up our hearts and spirits with Holy Fire, it was truly an electric event!

"We prayed more strongly than in the past before the Seminar began, ending with a Unison prayer of Repentance for ourselves and the Nation. Rev David Hanna gave an excellent talk tracing how the Foundation of Faith and the Foundation of Substance was laid for the Messiah to come, beginning with Adam's family all the way up to Jesus. Rev Isaac Ayani gave a spirited talk on the Prophecies for the Messiah – predicting both Suffering and Glory. He ended with such a deep, tearful and heartfelt prayer, then urged the pastors on the importance of studying the Divine Principle prayerfully.

"We had 8 wonderful Pastors present, and I am so grateful to all our workers who supported and helped to make the event successful. This time I am happy to say that Gianni Raineri kindly recorded both presentations."
