Dear Blessed Families,

Just this past Sunday, our National President Rev. Demian Dunkley shared how this time of quarantine and isolation is a prime opportunity to focus on deepening our family relationships.

True Parents also emphasize the role of families, as schools of love, in building God's dream: a world of true love.

Let's use this pandemic time to focus on this beautiful vision from True Parent's and our own family's vision!

What's your family culture like now? What kind of family culture would you like to have?

Each of our families is unique and growing our hearts isn't easy. It's a continuous learning process to deepen our relationships—with our spouse, with our children, with our parents, and with our siblings.

Fortunately, there's a lot of wisdom we can inherit from True Parent's guidance and from each other.

We're excited to introduce Realms of True Love: Connect Groups!

Every Thursday at 9:00 PM (EST) for the next five weeks, participants in this series will dive deep into True Parents' words and discuss with people of similar stages in life how to apply these words at home.

Whether you are a youth, a parent, a Blessed couple, or a grandparent—these Connect Groups are for you. We will start each session with all participants together, then break into small groups to discuss, share, and connect. Each small group will consist of the same people for five weeks.

We look forward to welcoming many of our senior families, couples, and candidates to join us for this unique opportunity to connect with others centered on Heavenly Parent and True Parents.

Sending you lots of love,

Yun-A Johnson

Director of Blessing & Family Ministry
