

Glorious Ascension, Andy Johnson!

I first met Andy in 1974 in Dunbar, Scotland. He never lacked enthusiasm no matter what the situation. After returning from a break, he devoted himself to reaching out to those who had drifted away and with his sincerity, compassion and genuine care, he revived their spiritual lives. The greatest testimony to Andy is the beautiful blessed family he built together with Kayoko. They continued his public-minded tradition.

You left us too soon, Andy, and we deeply miss you. However, Heavenly Parent and True Father must have great plans for you there. All of the town of Devizes will learn of your passing and be praying for you. They are your tribe, and will mourn for you and be concerned for your family. God speed you my beloved brother and may you fly to the highest heights in Heaven.
