July 3, 2020

The 14th Global Women's Peace Network (GWPN) Academy was held on July 3rd at 2 p.m. with WFWP Korea President Mrs. Su Youn Kim, WFWP Korea Vice-President Mrs. Sung Soon Hong, WFWP Korea Central Committee President Mrs. Mi Ok Kim, WFWP Korea Secretary General Jung Hwa Yoo, and 35 WFWP members from Japan, Thailand, Mongolia, and the Philippines.

The GWPN Academy is a motivational education and training course for multicultural members to foster leaders in the field. The academy consists of various education courses for a total of six weeks every Friday until August 7, with topics on the reunification principles of the Korean peninsula, vision and motivation courses, family counseling, politic, and women empowerment.

The MC, Mrs. Jung Hwa Yoo, invited Mrs. Su Youn Kim to give a welcoming speech, Mrs. Sung Soon Hong to give the words of encouragement, and Mrs. Mi Ok Kim to give a congratulatory remark. After watching an introduction video Mr. Do Seon Park gave a special lecture on the principles of life.

In a welcoming remark, Mrs. Su Youn Kim called all women participants from multicultural families, who are the citizens of Korean society, to move forward to increase their self-esteem and become women leaders of local activities.

Mrs. Mi Ok Kim wished to all participants "to become women leaders who can create harmonious cooperative relationships with local organizations in the fields" and emphasized her passion to join the GWPN academy programs together.

During a lecture on the principle of life, which was held on the subject of 'Lecture 1 says Happiness, Lecture 2 says How to Live?' Mr. Do Seon Park said, "Now during the COVID-19 is the right time for Korea to become the age that the Founder desires for. The Black Death that occurred in the Middle Age was a turning point to change into the Modern Age, and the Spanish flu in the early 20th century caused the change to the modern era. Therefore, COVID-19 in the present era will be converted to a new era in the world.

The 14th GWPN Academy is scheduled for a total of 6 weeks on a different topic every week, and those who will complete the whole course are given the status to become the member of WFWP Central Committee. Due to COVID-19 most of the program will be conducted online as a webinar.
