Report on True Mother by Chairman Fumi

As soon as you see your mother, you say, "What are you doing now?" " " was asked. I think this is a question asked by all of you, and you should always be prepared to report "I did this". Shindu-sama reported the Incheon Youth Convention of 2000 people, and told her that the pastors of KCLC came and worked hard together, and her mother was happy. Mother always wished for is that Korea should know that Korea is the elected people through the Korean People's Electorate Daijinshi. You must command this word, and educate it to the fullest.

Testament of American Church President Sammo

While struggling as a church president's samonym, he suffered from pancreas disease, but he heard his mother's voice spiritually and came to Seihei and cried in Tenshin-zai. After doing his best, doing his best, devoting all the sincerity of reading, refining the devotion, and refining the contribution of the Holy Mother Han through the 120th day victory, he was able to recover the feelings of Holy Mother Han by winning the 120 days, and he was able to reborn physically and mentally.

Certification of Muslim 40 trainees

My mom has spiritual problems and I've been through very scary things since I was a kid. Her mother's problems were solved through the central reiken, and finally she became a Tenji family, and she became the director of the training department for spiritual training. You will receive a great benefit from solving Shuyo, who has spiritual problems just like your mother, by becoming like your real sister and caring for her 24/7. I have become convinced that spiritual problems are always resolved. I hope he will become a leader in solving spiritual problems from now on.

Father's precious words, "The devotion I devoted to the cause of the past judges me today."

Father died and did his best so that God would not accuse me in the past. We must also do our best so that the elaboration that our past seniors have dedicated will not judge me. I must inherit the elaborate of my past, and dedicate it even more to my elaborate, and not my past elaborate condemn me, I must advance towards that elaborate that heaven appreciates and commends by the spirit world. That's how the spirit world moves and wondrous acts happen.

An article appeared in the newspaper that a Christian pastor protested against the detention of your mother and demanding her release in Pakistan, the state of Israel. Also, a church bishop reported that he called on the UN to take appropriate measures in the wrongful arrest of your mother and for her release. Through today's prayer, I pray that you will move heaven.
