TODAY, July 24 at 3 PM PDT online

National Parents' Day was born as partisan legislation, introduced by Representatives Dan Burton (R-IN) and Floyd Flake (D-NY) in 1994. The measure established Parents' Day, on the fourth Sunday of July, as a perennial day of commemoration. It flew through the House and Senate, acquiring 223 additional cosponsors, and was signed into law by President Clinton.

Why Parents' Day?

In every culture and time period, the family has stood as the most fundamental human institution. Family is the starting point of life, the sustainer of well-being, and the school of love. A family begins with the joining together of man and woman, husband and wife, becoming father and mother -- parents. The most powerful of human bonds is the parent-child relationship.
