The Role of Media and its responsibility to promote fairness in the global marketplace of ideas will be examined by veteran journalists Dr. Ester Davis, reporter for The Dallas Post Tribune and host and producer of the Ester Davis Show, and Carol Martindale, editor-in-chief of Nation Publishing, the leading publishing and media house in Barbados, and Global Women's Peace Network Media Liaison Laura Hornbeck. What can be done to ensure that reporting is fair and unbiased? How can the media help citizens from different religious and political backgrounds work toward mutual understanding instead of seeking to polarize?

Sponsored by the International Media Association for Peace of Universal Peace Federation
