"But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, 'This is the heir.

Come, let's kill him and take his inheritance.' So they took him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

"Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?"

"He will bring those wretches to a wretched end," they replied, "and he will rent the vineyard to other tenants, who will give him his share of the crop at harvest time."

Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the Scriptures:

*"The stone the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone;
the Lord has done this,
and it is marvelous in our eyes'?"*

Matthew 21: 38-42

Greetings!

On May 4, 2016 Michael Balcomb and Ki Hoon Kim released a letter indicating the intention of HSAUWC (aka FFWPU) to take legal action to protect their "property," the Unification symbol designed by Father and the term, "Cheon Il Guk," from being used by an organization that actually values and believes in Father's words, the Unification Sanctuary.

Following Mother's direction, the Unification symbol is not being used anywhere in the world by HSAUWC or its affiliates. The Family Federation position regarding the Unification Symbol is: we won't use it, but we don't want anyone else to use it either.

This legal action is in line with HSAUWC's apparent new philosophy: Forgive, Love, SUE, BULLY. It is truly sad that the precious donations of brothers and sisters around the world are being used for pointless legal actions to prevent those who love Father from using the symbol that represents the 12 gates to Heaven that Father opened up with his blood, sweat and tears.

On the plus side, at least the Family Fed is consistent about its intentions- consistent in its focus to erase both the symbol and substance of Father's words and to replace them with its unprincipled "Sinless Only Begotten Daughter" Han Mother theology. The choice is becoming more and more clear.

Here is an Unification Sanctuary memo commenting on several mistakes in the Balcomb-Kim memo.

The Mother God Cult

I received the following email two days ago regarding FFWPU's embrace and sponsorship of Andrew Wilson's presentations in Korea, Europe and here in America.

Dear Richard,

I am surprised that no one ever mentions that Andy Wilson is a long time leader of a secretive, highly controversial cult that revolves around the channeling activities of Kris Kreft.

Andy has been a worshiper of the Mother God through the channeling of Kris Kreft long before the arising of Sanctuary.

This group has several active and devoted followers. It was central to Ye Jin Nim's world, until Ye Jin had a falling out with Kreft and rejected him in favor of an American based channeler. Though Ye Jin rejected Kreft, the cult that continues to surround him did not, and remains active. Andy is a core leader of this secretive group.

It also is curious that the official UC gives such prominence to a person following an odd secretive schism involving a small number of UC members.

Andrew Wilson lecturing on "Heavenly Parent(s) and True Parents" at CheongPyeong on 2-16-2016

Several years ago I attended an "Ontology" conference at UTS that Andrew helped to organize where Kris Kreft, the New Zealand brother who channels "Mother God," spoke. In one session, "Mother God" said that since this is the Age of Women, the next president would and should be Hilary Clinton.

After the conference, I emailed Kris Kreft/Mother God with the following question, "why couldn't a conservative woman (who believes and supports the 4 Position Foundation) be elected President"?

The answer I got back was very revealing. Kris Kreft emailed the following response from "Mother God":
"I am not in contact with that part of the spirit world."

It seems that "Mother God" is only in contact with the liberal/progressive/leftwing part of the spirit world that endorses gay marriage, etc. I am sure She is rooting right now for Hilary at this moment...

Andrew has spoken publicly of his support for Hilary Clinton. Since I believe in freedom of conscience, I believe Andrew has the right to vote for whomever he wishes. Just surprising to me that he would vocally support a candidate and a political party that seems hell-bent on destroying the 4 position foundation by forcing gay "marriage" and "sexual rights" indoctrination on the entire U.S. population and indeed the entire world.

At the UN, Hilary Clinton's State Department and Obama's ambassador repeatedly threatened African and other poor countries with cutting off all U.S. aid if they did not support the gay and sexual rights agenda, which asserts that women have a right to engage in prostitution, that young people have an absolute right to be sexually active or to use pornography at any age, and that programs encouraging them to wait are a violation of their "human rights."

If I did not know that True Father is alive in the spirit world, I would say that he must be turning over in his grave to see the Unification Movement high-jacked in this way.

Here is a more detailed critique of Andrew's "Mother God" theology by Kerry Williams and a video of "My Response to Andrew Wilson."

Despite Family Fed's actions to erase the Messiah's words and teachings, I also am thankful that we have an anointed heir/successor who has taken on the challenge of preserving and spreading Father's words to this and future generations. Perhaps those who are sitting on the fence will wake up and take a stand while they still can.

Finally, let us rejoice that God's purpose will be fulfilled in the end. As Jesus said,

*"The stone the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone;
the Lord has done this,
and it is marvelous in our eyes."*

Unification Sanctuary Memo re: FFWPU's letter to its members

The Family Federation recently published a letter to its members signed by its U.S. leaders. The letter informed the members of a plan to issue a "cease and desist" notice to World Peace and Unification Sanctuary. According to the letter, the intent is to stop WPUS from using True Father's "Tongil Mark" and the term, "Cheon Il Guk".

As of May 5, WPUS has not received such a notice. If such a notice is received in the future, we will consult legal experts on how best to proceed.

In an attempt to justify their action against WPUS, the Family Federation letter misinforms their members on two points. First, the letter states that YouTube took action against the official Sanctuary Church channel and videos. This is not true.

It is true that Family Federation in July 2015 requested that YouTube shut down the personal YouTube channel of the Second King of Cheon Il Guk Hyung Jin Moon and the official channel of Sanctuary Church. In response, YouTube shut down the King's personal channel but took no action against the official channel. This channel, with videos going back to March 2015, continues to operate.

Second, the letter describes the term "Cheon Il Guk" as "protected". Family Federation in September 2015 filed an application with the US Patent and Trademark Office to register "Cheon Il Guk" as a trademark. In response, USPTO issued a "priority action" on January 5, 2016, advising Family Federation that their application contained insufficient material for USPTO to grant the registration. The USPTO gave Family Federation six months to submit additional material.

In March 2016, a lawyer acting on behalf of WPUS submitted a letter of protest. In forwarding our letter to the examining attorney, an attorney advisor in the office of the USPTO Deputy Commissioner for Trademark Examination Policy stated that the content of our letter "may support a reasonable ground for refusal" to grant the registration sought by Family Federation.

Information on the USPTO website as of this date indicates that Family Federation has not responded to either the January 5 priority action by USPTO or the WPUS letter of protest. The term "Cheon Il Guk" has not been registered by USPTO. Information on this matter is available by clicking the following link:

The May 5 letter by Family Federation leaders demonstrates once again that they resort to lies and misinformation to maintain control over their membership and that the moniker "Family Fraud" is justly deserved.

2nd Letter to Andrew Wilson, by Kerry Williams

May 3, 2016

Dear Andrew,

Why do you persist in persecuting our Father? Why do you continue to betray the one who went to the cross over and over again to die for your sins? I have lost track of your neatly packaged transgressions: Sunday sermons, lectures in Korea and Europe, webinars in the United States, blogs on UTS websites – all are variations on your favorite theme of promoting a ditheistic god.

Although you did not respond to my previous letter, I am undeterred. The false kingdom which has claimed you as one of its defenders is collapsing, and I want to be remembered as someone who helped knock down a brick or two. I see the amused look on your face. Consider yourself slapped.

Yes, I am angry. Just like Lucifer, you have tried to place yourself above God by taking His words and twisting them to serve your self-centered agenda.

Trying to split God into two beings will not work, Andrew. He is Only One. Heavenly Mother is not a separate being from Heavenly Father. If they were two separate beings, God would have had no need to create. He would already have been happily fulfilled.

In 1957, under Father's supervision, Hyo Won Eu edited the "Explanation of Divine Principle" and in 1966 "Exposition of the Divine Principle" based on the "Wolli Wonbon." In Mr. Eu's personal diary, he recorded this explanation from Father which "turned his [Mr. Eu's]

Hyung Jin Nim and Joseph's Course

by Richard Panzer, Ph.D. "Now Israel loved Joseph more than any other of his world upside down”:

If God already had Yin and Yang in Him, there would have been no creation...God exists as the harmony of Sungsang and Hyungsang, and is the Yang (male) type of existence. Therefore, God had to create the Yin (female) type of world. (Gil Ja Sa Eu, “A Testimony to God’s Word in Regard to Divine Principle” pp. 79-80).

This description of God’s nature did not change 30 years later in the 1996 retranslation of the “Exposition of the Divine Principle” (which you helped edit):

Before the creation, God existed alone as the internal and masculine subject partner. He therefore created the universe as His external and feminine objective partner. (Exposition of the Divine Principle, p. 19)

Father confirmed his belief that God was a single subjective being on many occasions:

What is the Subject Being of masculine character? Do you think it would be good if God were the Subject Being of feminine character? If there were a Subject Being of feminine character, there would necessarily be dualism because there must be a masculine (Subject) Being. Since God is the only God, God has an original masculine form with a subjective nature as a harmonious being of masculinity and femininity. (Reverend Moon, “The Path of Religion” 10/14/88)

Note the elegant simplicity with which he describes the oneness of our Creator, whose personality is the source of all the beautiful qualities we see in the hearts of men and women. When referring to God, the name Father most commonly used was “Hananim” i.e. “One God.”

The Han Mother, however, announced on January 7, 2013, that we should no longer address God as “Heavenly Father.” From now on, she declared, Unificationists must refer to God as “Heavenly Parents”:

The verdict is in: her God is two, not one. In one bold proclamation she disassociated herself from the 6,000 year foundation of monotheistic Judeo-Christian history.

Your newfound celebrity as the Han Mother's pet theologian undoubtedly stems from your eagerness to champion her pluralistic view of the Creator. You write:

...the core resemblance in creation is between God whose essence is duality, and human beings who were created male and female. (Andrew Wilson, "God as Heavenly Parent in Rev. Moon's Early Teachings" 2/22/16)

Since God has two genders, no individual of one gender can incarnate the full image of God. (ibid)

You appear peeved that your favorite god, Heavenly Mother, is practically non-existent in the misogynistic Bible. Genesis records that Heavenly Father cursed Eve after the fall, and doomed her to experience pain in childbirth. You state that another god, Heavenly Mother, "wanted to console Eve and help her recover," as well as "instruct Eve how to raise her babies." (Andrew Wilson, "Heavenly Parent and True Parents," 2016)

In the Gospel according to Wilson, God appears to be an unhappily married couple with drastically different approaches to effective parenting.

Your explanation would be comical if you weren't leading people away from Father with this nonsense.

In the future, faithful scholars will meticulously critique and correct your heretical writings; my purpose here is to simply show that having a PhD by your name is no guarantee of spiritual intelligence or academic integrity.

Did you think no one would notice your deliberate mistranslation of this passage from the Cheon Seong Gyeong in one of your recent presentations?

Externally God resembles man and internally God resembles women. While He is strong, all-knowing, and omnipotent, She also has a merciful heart that can embroider flowers on Buddha's smile. God should also have a heart like that of the most feminine woman. Only then will these two sides have life. (Andrew Wilson, "Heavenly Father and True Parents," 2016)

Your use of the pronoun "she" is disingenuous. In the original Korean, Father references God twice in the above paragraph by using the word "Hananim" both times (Korean CSG p. 62; English CSG p.69). By your insertion of the feminine pronoun, which actually does not exist in the Korean language, you are able to make yet another false claim for your ditheistic god.

Andrew, the subjective, masculine God does not have two genders, He created genders. Father taught us that God created Adam to be His actual body, and Eve was created to be His wife.

Adam, who was to have become God's body, would have become the progenitor of humanity. In other words, he would have been God incarnate. For the invisible God to exercise dominion over the world of substance, He had to have a substantial form, namely a body, through which he would then be able to see and hear; hence He created Adam to become His embodiment. (CSG, p. 2,241)

Who was Eve, then? She was Adam's wife, the wife of the substantial form. If Adam was to be God incarnate, then Eve was to be the wife of God incarnate. You may be dumbfounded by the idea of the holy God taking a wife, but Adam was the body of God incarnate, and Eve was created as the wife of God incarnate. (CSG, pp. 2,241-2,242)

The truth is, many Unificationists have misunderstood the dynamics of God, Adam, and Eve within the 4 Position Foundation by perceiving their relationships two-dimensionally. The two-dimensional yang/yin cookie-cutter image of God is misleading because it suggests

God is 50% masculine and 50% feminine.

A more accurate depiction is found in a three-dimensional model of God, Adam, and his son existing on a vertical axis. The vertical axis represents the invisible God manifesting Himself in the corporeal form of Adam in order to stand as the subject in the substantial world. Through the seed of Adam, God's spiritual lineage is transmitted to the physical lineage of Adam.

It was through Adam that God intended to establish His lineage on the earth:

The blood lineage through thousands of years of history is linked centered on a man who has a vertical relationship with God, not a woman. Woman cannot connect the blood lineage. Only a man! A man can do this because he resembles God. (Reverend Moon, "Sermon at the World Leaders' Conference" 8/2/96)

In order to realize love, we must first inherit God's blood lineage, which can only be accomplished through a man. This concept was the essence of "seed theology" taught in the "Original Substance of Divine Principle" which Father gave as one of his final revelations.

Father clarifies Adam's subjective responsibility in the Wollli Wonbon when he writes:

Husbands! Your duty is to stand up as a person of beauty in order to receive love from God, and then return beauty in order to perfect goodness. If you do this as the representatives of Heaven and the Father with heavenly love, then you will manifest love towards your wife, who is the second object partner. Only if you do that will you become a principled man who is qualified to have dominion over your wife. (Wollli Wonbon, p. 172)

He continues by explaining the position of the wife:

The wife who relates to such a husband must appear as beauty and, as a representative body of Heavenly Mother, perfect the second goodness through love and unity and find an orbit around the basic goodness [i.e. the husband] in order to form the ideal goodness. (Wolli Wonbon, p. 172)

Just as an electron forms a common base with a proton and moves in a spherical motion around that proton in a three-dimensional pattern, so the position of Eve is fulfilled by existing in spherical rotation of love around Adam.

Through the union of man and woman, the seed from God becomes implanted in the woman's womb, and God's lineage is substantiated on the earth.

Father's teaching ushers in a new age for women based on understanding the level of intimacy God desires to have with us. Our Heavenly Father's motive for creating the entire universe was to seek for a love partner; He created Eve as the masterpiece of His creation so that He could love her through the body of Adam:

For God, Eve was His future wife, because Adam was meant to become God Himself by becoming united with Him. ("Blessed Family and the Ideal Kingdom," p. 223)

It is not Adam and Eve's bodies that God likes, but rather their love for each other. (CSG, p. 336)

Centering on love, God was to have dwelt in Adam and Eve, becoming the horizontal True Parents to all humankind. After Adam and Eve went to the spirit world, God would have continued to manifest as the divine Parent, now clothed in the image of Adam and Eve.

Father explains how husband and wife are able to manifest as the image of one God in the spiritual realm:

In the spirit world, God harmonizes with human beings through love and we become one with God through love. We become God-like. In the creation, we can see how God's dual characteristics are divided, but when man and woman become completely united in love, they will be like one person in the spirit world. If you were to just glance at a person, he would clearly look like a man, but on closer inspection, you will find a woman harmonized inside him. (CSG, p. 864)

Jesus spoke of this marital union in Mark 10:8: "... and the two will become one flesh. So they are no longer two, but one flesh."

Had Adam and Eve not fallen, their couple would have been the representative body of Heavenly Father and Mother. Had Eve perfected her role as loving object to Adam, she would have been able to stand as Heavenly Mother in the spiritual realm. However, her position as Heavenly Mother should be understood in the context of wife of God, who is not a separate being from the Godhead. In total unity with her husband, they ultimately are not two separate beings, but one through love.

As created beings still living in the physical world, we must be humble to the fact that we are "looking through a glass darkly" when attempting to understand God's perfect plan of creation. The Messiah has the onerous task of communicating God's pure principles using language that originated from the fallen world.

Although Father gave us this "seed theology" as one of his final revelations, it is not completely new. I believe it is best understood as the fulfillment of the teachings of Christ which appear in the New Testament:

No one who is born of God practices sin, because His seed abides in him; and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. (1 John 3:9)

Only through unity with Christ can we be reborn into God's lineage.

I pray you can soon understand the heart of our Father who is still loving you and waiting for your return.

Sincerely,

Kerry Williams
