Who is this man?

Let those who love the LORD hate evil, for he guards the lives of his faithful ones and delivers them from the hand of the wicked.
Psalm 97:10

In Matthew 25, in the Last Days God will send the sheep to the right and the goats to the left. This symbolizes that the evil world will be divided and separated into two, the sheep who belong to the Lord and the goats who do not belong to the Lord. That time is now: the democratic world attends God as their Lord, while the Communist world denies God's existence and treats religion as its enemy.

Greetings!,

After reading the firestorm of responses to Tuesday's email "FFWPU Launches Investigation" it is evident that the FFWPU headquarters is not interested to learn the identity of the mysterious man seen carrying Mother in the photo. For that reason, we must accept the reality that the investigation has been canceled...

Take the example of a response from Larry, a respected elder brother who must have seen and spoken with Father face-to-face many times over 4 decades. Larry takes at face value the lack of the word "ALONE" in the caption provided by Peace TV for Mother's February 25 speech (starting at 4:22), saying

"Nowhere in the subtitles does TM claim to have walked her 57-year path "ALONE." The "A-word" does NOT appear in the subtitles."

Yes, Larry, ISN'T THAT THE POINT? Yes, Hak Ja Han told the Japanese Second Generation members who had gathered: "I have walked this path ALONE for 57 years but there are 1200 of you."

She emphasized on purpose the word "alone," as was confirmed by a professional translator. She even puts special emphasis on the word "Na neun" (which means I), followed by a short pause, and then the term which is left out in the official translation "honja seo" (alone), followed by a longer pause, and then she continues with "57 years..."

Larry expresses no dismay that he and other Westerners who do not know the Korean language have been misled by the Peace TV editors. He is upset and frustrated with me for having raised the issue!

It reminds me of the anger of leftwing progressives against those who dare to mention that recent terrorist attacks have been committed by radical Islamists. They say such events should be described as "workplace" violence or "firearms" events with no reference to the ideology of those who commit these savage acts of terror while shouting "Allahu Akbar! ("Allah is the greatest!") They think peace will come from feel-good speeches full of moral posturing rather than confronting reality.

It also reminds me of the 1970s and 1980s when True Father (remember the mysterious man in the photo?), boldly tried to wake up the American people to the threat of international Communism and mobilized brothers and sisters to help Ronald Reagan to become elected.

Liberals viewed President Reagan as a dangerous warmonger who would lead the U.S. into a WWII nuclear exchange that might destroy much of the planet. Instead, because of Reagan's courage and righteousness in confronting the Soviet Union and demanding that Mr. Gorbachev "tear down" the Berlin Wall, the Soviet Empire disintegrated beginning in 1989, and hundreds of millions of enslaved people in Eastern Europe and the former republics of the Soviet Empire were liberated.

Father's heir/successor Hyung Jin Nim makes similar effort every morning during his 3 hour King's Report online broadcast to wake up brothers and sisters to realize the grave danger that Korea currently faces. In the last year Mother speaks often in her speeches about the trendy "Climate Change" issue while not mentioning the fate of her own country. Doesn't her silence about this urgent issue tell you something?

Larry, standing up for what is true always comes at a cost, but Father showed us through his own life, not just words, how this can be done. The truth is that you and many other Family Fed brothers and sisters KNOW that something is deeply flawed in what Mother is saying and doing, with disastrous consequences for Korea and the rest of the world. You know that she is lifting herself up by airbrushing Father out of the picture, but you say nothing and lift not even one finger to help Father.

You watch as his words, clearly stated directions and life are changed or ignored. You are a very talented writer and you could do ten times more than I to remind brothers and sisters what Father said and did in his life. Larry, WHY won't you do that?

May God bless you and your families! Sincerely,

Richard
