

Lucifer's Compassion

"The moment Adam and Eve fell, God's heart was torn so painfully He almost went insane. You should never forget about the Father who was shaken so thoroughly as to almost forget Himself. Have you ever thought about that? Even when fallen people on the earth watch their children die, they feel their bone marrow melt. They want to save their children even at the cost of their own lives. How must the heart of God have been as He watched Adam and Eve walking the path toward the Fall and crossing the line of death? Unless you understand that heart, there is no way for you to become God's sons and daughters." Reverend Sun Myung Moon, "The Toil of God as He Tries to Raise Up His Beloved Children", October 11,

Greetings!

At yesterday's service Hyung Jin Nim invited UTS graduate Kerry Williams to give a presentation of the paper she will present at the upcoming conference on THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF SUN MYUNG MOON AND THE UNIFICATION MOVEMENTS. Her paper, "Only One God: The Debate on God as 'Heavenly Father' vs. God as 'Heavenly Parents' in the Contemporary Unification Movement" challenged Andrew Wilson's feminist belief that "God has two genders" and that not accepting God's duality leads to "a world of ugliness, a world where women never experience their full value ... and where excessive testosterone leads inevitably to violence and war."

Kerry Williams explained that to Wilson, the Bible is a flawed book, written and used by men to justify exploitation of women, citing his statement that:

"...fallen societies always put men on top, while women were treated miserably, even as the man's property to do with as he wished. To make matters worse, this patriarchal attitude belittling women was inscribed in scripture, which led believers to justify it as if it were God's way. The Bible, after all, was written by men."

Kerry Williams countered that "the truth is that Judeo-Christianity has elevated, not diminished, the status of women. Judeo-Christian nations, guided by the Ten Commandments and teachings of Christ, have conferred more rights to women than any other nation in human history. Wilson also appears blind to the tremendous love and sacrifice that millions of godly men, raised with biblical values, have displayed in giving their lives to protect the safety and freedom of women."

After Kerry's presentation Hyung Jin Nim commented on key themes in her presentation. Yes, Father corrected President Eu's belief that God's original nature was yin and yang and clarified that it was internal nature (Sung Sang) and external form (Hyung Sang) that are the primary nature of God, not a duality of genders.

God Himself is not a dualistic being. If He were Heavenly Father/Heavenly Mother as FFWPU and Andrew Wilson believe, there would be no need for Him to create the Universe and Human Beings as His object partner.

FFWPU's dualistic theology creates conflicting authorities, leading to a conflict between a "judgmental" Heavenly Father and compassionate "Heavenly Mother," and the view that Hak Ja Han is an "equal subject," whom they believe has veto power over Sun Myung Moon. Lucifer also had "compassion" for Eve, which led her to leave God and become Lucifer's pawn. For God to accept Lucifer's "compassion" would be like God "marrying" Lucifer and making him co-creator.

God's principle may seem harsh and demanding in the short-term, but it leads to a world of true freedom and responsibility. Lucifer's compassion seems sweet, but it leads to slavery. Christians pray every day for the coming of the Kingdom of God, which is one of freedom, responsibility, conscience, ethics, loving God and one's neighbors to the extent of being willing to risk one's life to protect them, becoming prosperous through virtuous behavior and serving others. The Kingdom of God is not a "compassionate" centralized government promising everything to everyone, by seizing and confiscating resources from some and redistributing it to others. That would be just another satanic kingdom of slavery.
