Re: ”GETTING BACK ON TRACK” RETREAT SEPTEMBER 1-4, 2011
Date: June 7, 2010

We are pleased to announce an important opportunity for young adult BCs who have had a relationship outside of the Blessing, and would like to reevaluate their faith, renew their spiritual life or seek a clear path to the Blessing. A “Getting Back on Track” retreat will be held over the Labor Day weekend, from September 1-4, 2011, about 45 minutes from New York City. The program begins at 12:00 Noon on Thursday, September 1st, and concludes Sunday, September 4th at 5:00 PM. The retreat seeks to provide a safe and supportive environment where participants can:

- o Experience the unchanging love of God in a supportive community.
- o Connect and share with others who have had similar experiences, challenges, and insights.
- o Reflect on the values of the Principle and the meaning of the Blessing.
- o Find answers to their most important questions.
- o Relax and have fun in a peaceful environment.
- o Create a personal path of renewal to realize the Blessing in their lives.

Parents may attend, but only at the invitation of their participating son or daughter. Parents whose children are not yet ready to attend may participate themselves. Parents will for the most part meet separately, to give BC participants the freedom to connect, communicate and support one another.

As always, participants are expected to respect the privacy and confidentiality of others at the retreat. Those wishing to attend should write to backontrack@unification.org to learn the location and schedule, and receive a registration form. Space will be limited, and registration after August 12th will cost more. If you want more information or would just like to talk to someone, please contact any of those listed below, or call Mrs. Debby Gullery at (347) 737-5279. Japanese families can also call Mrs. Hiromi Stephens at (443) 285-1806.
