30 Years CARP-Rally Berlin 1987

Berlin, April 16, 2017

Dear G-CARP Alumni,
Dear CARP members in Germany and everywhere,
Dear brothers and sisters!

In 1981 True Father addressed German CARP members saying: “One day in the not-too-distant future, we will go to Berlin and shout to the communists, 'break down that wall. That wall doesn't belong there!'”

In August 1987, the “Fourth CARP Convention for World Students” brought 3000 people from all over the world to Berlin. The peak event on August 8 was a march to the wall, spearheaded by the then world CARP President, Hyo Jin Moon. We will never forget the slogan we shouted: “Die Mauer muss weg!” (The wall must go). Hyo Jin Nim’s fiery speech and his tearful prayer directly at that wall is remembered by our whole Unification Movement.

On November 9, 1989 the wall broke down.

Now 30 years later, it is obvious that this event had a huge impact. Not only did it strengthen the spirit of the “we are the people” (“Wir sind das Volk”) movement in East Germany, it was also providentially significant for the breakdown of communism in 1989/1990.

We want to reflect on this event, to pass on the legacy of its spirit to our younger generation, and look forward to the goals still to be accomplished:

- the unification of our fatherland, Korea
- the spiritual defeat of godless, materialistic ideologies and
- the establishment of a family-centered society, based on the original lineage.
