Dear,

Warm greetings to you at this time of growth and new beginnings!

We at Women's Federation for World Peace feel proud and hopeful when we see the talents of young women and their hearts of compassion for the world. Seeing what is possible, we seek to educate and nurture young women, so they can develop their talents, learn new skills, and achieve both internal and external excellence.

We recognize that for our mission to continue, we need to invest in the next generation of peace leaders. Our Leadership of the Heart education is empowering people of different backgrounds to tap into their God-given talents and use them to create a Culture of Heart where they live.

One young woman from Maryland said,

“This [education] helped me to connect with my inner heart...As a leader, [it] gave me an opportunity and many ideas on things that I can do to reconnect with my heart and to be a healthier individual. By doing these things, I realized that it is not selfish, but rather necessary to be the best person I can be for others and for God.”

We are able to continue fostering compassionate leadership thanks to member support. Will you join us today and empower young peace leaders to make a difference for their communities?

Thank you in advance for any support you can give!

Wishing you health and happiness,

Angelika Selle and the
WFWP team
