Thanks to our generous donors all around the country, Women's Federation for World Peace USA was recently able to send a donation of $10,000 to the Handow Secondary School in Lugari, Kenya. This educational institution is one of ten schools in Africa that WFWP has been supporting annually as part of the Schools of Africa project.

Founded in 1998, Handow Secondary School is located in an impoverished rural area far from the capital Nairobi. The local population depends mainly on crop farming and livestock, and access to quality education is very limited.

Despite all the challenges, including a lack of electricity and running water, with the help of WFWP, Handow school has been able to grow and develop, graduating more than 2100 students, and it continues to make a lasting impact on the students, teachers, staff, their families and the community at large.

In a recent letter, Muzame Stanley, the principal of the Handow Secondary School, offered the following words of appreciation: "Thank you for your commitment to our community. It is organizations like WFWP that have enabled quality infrastructure for students in Kenya to access education irrespective of their social and home background. May the God Almighty bless you and protect all of you."

He also detailed how the donated funds would be used in the construction of a new building that will include administrative offices as well as additional classes for the growing student population.

If you are interested to support this project and make a positive impact in the lives of children in Africa, please donate here.

In the early 90s, the founders of WFWP commissioned 1600 volunteers from WFWP Japan to serve in underdeveloped nations. With willing hearts, these women went to the poorest nations, to neighborhoods in every corner of the world. They started schools, fed the undernourished, and worked to empower women.

Inspired by their dedication, WFWP USA initiated the "Schools of Africa" project to financially support 9 schools founded by those faithful volunteers.

SUPPORT FROM WFWP USA

Each year, WFWP chapters across the country hold dynamic and creative fundraisers for the Schools of Africa. Fundraising events may take the form of tag sales, silent auction galas, or luncheons that celebrate African food and culture.

Since 2002, thanks to many generous donors, WFWP USA has sent over $410,000 to the schools.

This invaluable support has helped the schools purchase critical materials for lessons and provide scholarships to impoverished students. Contributions from WFWP USA has also supported school feeding programs, expanded and improved facilities, and paid for skilled staff. Many of the schools operate in the poorest neighborhoods, and have come to serve as a source of stability to their communities.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Azama (left), graduate of New Hope Technical Institute, now works as a beautician. She learned massage therapy from Haruna at New Hope.

"One day my manager started to lay off workers but fortunately I am still working because I know how to massage which customers appreciate. I can continue to help my family. I really thank Haruna and New Hope."

Virgilio, graduate of Sun of Mozambique, who now works as Country Manager for an engineering consulting firm.

"I would like to take the opportunity to thank so much the Women's Federation for World Peace for...everything that you've been putting into the education of Mozambicans."
