Introducing our second speaker in the lineup for our Global Women's Peace Network Reflect. Reset. Rebuild series, Aimmee Kodachian! Aimmee is the Host, Creator, Producer, and Director of the Empowering Humanity TV Show.

Aimmee understands what it means to live in darkness with no hope or opportunities. Despite countless challenges of living through the Lebanese Civil War, losing family members and becoming homeless, forced to leave school with only a 4th grade education, and becoming a single teenage mom, Aimmee was determined to make her own opportunities and build a beautiful, successful life. And with time and hard work, she was able to do just that.

Through her businesses and the Empowering Humanity TV Show, she now helps others to see the light through darkness. She guides leaders to transform their lives from surviving to thriving, finding healing, hope and love.

If you have been struggling to see hope in your life and business, this is the event for you. Aimmee will be sharing on "The Blueprint for Women to Build a Thriving Life After Catastrophe."
