Introducing our first speaker in the lineup for our Global Women's Peace Network Reflect. Reset. Rebuild series, Dr. Susan Taffer!

Dr. Susan Taffer serves as Director for The Western Region Global Women's Peace Network where she strategizes international and local Educational Initiatives, Peace Program Initiatives and Women's Leadership Training Initiatives.

Dr. Taffer is a Global Educator, a Humanitarian, and the Principal Founder of World Connections Foundation in Arizona where she serves as a Mentor, Professor and Leadership advisor to University Presidents and K-26 Administrators around the World.

She is an online adjunct Doctoral Chair in Education and Professor of Psychology with Grand Canyon University. She is also the Provost Elect for Acacia University International Graduate College for Educators with DEAC Online Accreditation.

Dr. Taffer has dedicated her life teaching others to unleash their true potential for a greater purpose. Her tireless commitment toward inspiring women to embrace their unique leadership talents has been the incentive behind her role as an Executive Board Leader for Athena Valley of the Sun and the Chief of Curriculum Design for the ATHENA International Academy in New York City and The Women in Technology International Leadership Development Program & Board Advisor for Dream Smart Academy in California.

During our upcoming live Reflect. Reset. Rebuild session, she will be sharing on “Crisis in Education, A Global Perspective: The Problems, Purpose, and Potential.”

This interactive event will be streaming live on facebook.com/wfwpusa. Like our page in advance for the live notification, and meet us there are 2PM EDT on Wednesday, July 1st when the session begins.
