Dear friends,

This is a reminder for our upcoming National Weekly Prayer call, which is a continuation of a previous prayer effort of our WFWP national chairwomen. It is also an initiative toward bringing healing and positive change to our hurting nation.

As always, we will open with a representative prayer and read two paragraphs on page 280 from the memoir of WFWP Founder, Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, entitled "Mother of Peace: And God Shall Wipe Away All Tears from Their Eyes." Participants are then invited to share brief reflection, all ending with a representative prayer and remarks from WFWP USA President Angelika Selle. Kindly see below the reading quotes for tomorrow.

We trust that you will come away inspired and enriched by participating in the national prayer for peace.

With warm regards,
Angelika Selle

Reading for Saturday, July 18, 2020:

"If you reflect on God's heart, you will recognize that the hardships and suffering that you may be going through are nothing compared to His. We have to repent before God. You did not bring yourself into the world. Your life is a gift from God. His will for us is that we make our lives beautiful and worthwhile. When we believe in our hearts that we are here for our children and family, for our spouse, as well as for all humanity and the entire world, we will find happiness.

In all of this, your heart is your closest teacher. In the face of difficulty or confusion, ask your heart. Your Heavenly Parent who loves you resides deep in your heart. You are designed to hear God's true voice. We all need to hone our ability to hear God's whisper in our hearts. Your heart is your eternal guardian. Heartfelt prayer is the only passageway to God. Through such true prayer, you will receive the grace of God and True Parents in even the most destitute and difficult place. The helping hand of that grace leads us on the free and happy path to the kingdom of heaven."
