Dear friends,

Tomorrow is the last National Weekly Prayer call for this 8-week series. We thank all of those who were able to participate and contribute their heartfelt prayers to this initiative toward bringing healing and positive change to our hurting nation.

As always, we will open with a representative prayer and read two paragraphs on page 51 from the memoir of WFWP Founder, Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, entitled "Mother of Peace: And God Shall Wipe Away All Tears from Their Eyes." (Note: the page number may be not match for your book, so please rely on this email for the reading quote.) Participants are then invited to share brief reflection, all ending with a representative prayer and remarks from WFWP USA President Angelika Selle. Kindly see below the reading quote for tomorrow.

We trust that you will come away inspired and enriched by participating in the national prayer for peace.

With warm regards,
Angelika Selle

Reading for Saturday, July 25, 2020:

"Every one of us needs to feel deeply grateful for being born. There is not one person whose birth is meaningless. Moreover, no person's life is his or hers alone. Heaven, earth, and all things in the universe interconnect through lines of latitude and longitude. Peace means that all the enregies in the entire world, and in the entire universe, are in harmony. Therefore, no one should belittle his or her life. We should deeply realize that everyone is a precious being, born through the sacred workings of the universe."
