Dear women leaders and sisters in faith,

Thank you for joining our final Interfaith Women's Prayer Circle sharing of this year last week on December 19th. We have come a long way, and truly each and every contribution and reflections from the women and mothers who have attended these prayer circles revealed a profound heart, deep wisdom and love.

The reading and recording below is worthwhile listening to again and sharing about in your family circle and friends to expand the heart and spirit of giving during this holiday season!

Our next and first prayer circle of the new year will be held on Saturday, January 2, 2021!

Let's be the light in 2021, and continue to stay in prayer and in love until next time in 2021!

Happy New Year 2021!

With warm wishes,
Angelika Selle

Reading for Saturday, Dec 19: Pyong Hwa Gyong, Book 1, God is the Origin of Peace, Korea, 2002

Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon: "Throughout his life, Jesus never said he wanted to receive love. Rather he said he came to serve, and that he would love even his enemies."

Without that kind of love, we cannot find the origin of peace; and without the origin of peace, we cannot establish a world of peace. The world of peace can never come to exist as long as we focus only on receiving love."
