Dear women leaders and sisters in faith,

Thank you for joining our first and new cycle of the Interfaith Women's Prayer Circle sharing of the new year last week on January 2, 2021. We truly felt a brand new spirit on the call, and are hopeful for this NEW YEAR!

Our reading below will also be the THEME READING for all upcoming prayer circle sessions, with an additional reading for discussion.

Please, take a moment in listening to the heart and words shared in this first session, as it sets the tone for the new year. As mentioned in the previous email, Rev. Dr. Linda Nishikawa will be co-hosting these prayer circles together with myself, taking turns every other week. Every quarter we will have a celebration of all good developments and results of the prayers, as we will see God at work through our efforts. Feel free to share this recording with others!

Our next prayer circle will be held on Saturday, January 16, 2021.

Happy New Year and first month of 2021!

With love and gratitude,
Angelika Selle and Linda Nishikawa

Reading for Saturday, January 2, 2021 from the Mother of Peace Memoir by Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon on page 257:

"When our mindset (and heartset) changes from wishing to receive love, to wishing to give love, the world peace will be at hand."
