Dear women leaders and sisters in faith,

We are looking forward to this week's Interfaith Women's Prayer Circle of Peace and Healing for America on Saturday, January 16, 2021 at 1pm EST, as we continue to set the tone for an uplifting and hopeful new year.

As mentioned in the previous email, our last reading above will be the ANNUAL THEME for 2021! The bi-weekly reading for discussion is listed below!

This week's session will be led by my co-host, Rev. Dr. Linda Nishikawa, taking turns every two weeks. We will begin with an opening prayer, a spiritual text reading from our Founder, Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon (see below), followed by reflections from participants, ending with a closing prayer and announcements.

We look forward to hearing you on the call this Saturday!

With love and gratitude,
Angelika Selle and Linda Nishikawa

Reading for Saturday, January 16th: Pyong Hwa Gyong, Book 1, God is the Origin of Peace, Korea, 2002

Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon: *"Throughout his life, Jesus never said he wanted to receive love. Rather he said he came to serve, and that he would love even his enemies."

Without that kind of love, we cannot find the origin of peace; and without the origin of peace, we cannot establish a world of peace. The world of peace can never come to exist as long as we focus only on receiving love."
