Introducing Mrs. Lynn Walsh, our first speaker for the upcoming Global Women's Peace Network series on *Women's Leadership in Reconciliation and Peacemaking!

During next week's forum on What You Might Not Know About the Family, she will be sharing insights on "Family at the Crossroads." She will discuss the societal aspect of unstable families, the value of commitment, and the importance of role models in the family.

Lynn Walsh is the Director of the Universal Peace Federation's Office of the Family and serves on the executive committee of the NGO Committee on the Family at the United Nations representing UPF. She holds a Masters in Clinical Social Work from Fordham University and Masters in Divinity from Unification Theological Seminary. Lynn taught sociology at the University of Bridgeport for over 15 years and currently teaches at Unification Theological Seminary.

She was an adolescent and family therapist at Fair Oaks Psychiatric Hospital in New Jersey. Lynn is certified to teach numerous relationship education programs. She and her husband, Thomas Walsh, have two sons and two granddaughters.

Register today and join us for the session on Monday, February 15 at 3 PM EST.
