

Introducing Global Women's Peace Network Panelists - The Next Generation

Angelika Selle
March 24, 2021

Global Women's Peace Network USA Presents

Women's Leadership in Reconciliation & Peacemaking
"The Next Generation"

Friday, March 26, 2021 Time: 2:00-3:15 PM EDT

Introducing our speakers for the upcoming Global Women's Peace Network series as we continue to celebrate Women's History Month 2021! Join us this coming Friday to hear from two young women leaders of the next generation, as they address women's role in reconciliation and peacemaking from their own unique backgrounds of expertise and experience. We also added a breakout session (new feature) for discussion and networking among participants.

Register Today!

Speaker Lineup

"Leadership from the Inside Out"

Elizabeth Yang

Elizabeth Yang will be our first speaker and will share her insights on "Leadership from the Inside Out." She will dive into key aspects of being a leader through outsmarting the work-life balance, developing emotional intelligence, and using active listening and interpretation to foster peace.

Elizabeth is the owner and founder of the Law & Mediation Offices of Elizabeth Yang, has over a decade of legal experience and is recognized by Thomson Reuters as a "Super Lawyer". Her firm specializes in Family Law, Business Law, Intellectual Property, and Estate Planning and has offices in Los Angeles, Irvine, Monterey Park, Beverly Hills and Taipei.

At the age of 19, Elizabeth earned her B.S. in Electrical Engineering and Computer Science from UC Berkeley in 2.5 years. She then earned her JD/MBA from the University of La Verne as well as her Mediation Certification with the Los Angeles County Bar Association (LACBA). Elizabeth is a best selling author and has published 5 books to date.

HanaLyn Colvin, our second speaker, will share her perspective on "The Power of Art for Peace." She will address how art can be a powerful tool for expression and influence, with the ability to create positive change and empowerment.

HanaLyn is a poet and spoken word artist who features regularly in venues from Baltimore to New York. HanaLyn tackles the complex issues of love, sex, race, and cultural bigotry through her lyrical poetry and powerful spoken word. She has won praise for her performances as an actress on the community theater scene for roles such as Phoebe in Months on End and Cassie Cooper in Rumors.

HanaLyn is also a conservative political activist. She served as the Media and Communications Director for the Eugene Boikai City Council Campaign in 2020 and currently appears as a co-host of Pop and Politics, a weekly Baltimore-based talk show for the smart, edgy, urban conservative.

Register Today!

Women's Federation for World Peace USA
info@wfp.us

