Dear WFWP Friend,

We are excited to invite you to a virtual celebration of Women's Federation for World Peace's 29th Anniversary. For nearly three decades, WFWP has had a tremendous impact here in North America, so let's celebrate together with fun and fellowship, with music, games, prizes, as well as connecting to the deep heart behind WFWP. Whether you have been involved with WFWP since its founding in 1992 or are brand new to WFWP, we would love to see you there. The only qualification to attend is being ready to party!

This event is free and open to the public, so invite your family and friends! Also, since most of us haven't been able to get spruced up to go anywhere special for the past year, we'll also have a special contest for the Best Dressed. Anyone can enter. So pull out that beautiful dress, sharp blazer, or fabulous hat!

Simply RSVP by clicking the link below or share by forwarding this email.

Can't wait to celebrate with you!
