Dear Friend of WFWP,

This year you can help provide hope and stability for North Korean children and their families!

The life of North Korean defectors is often fraught with difficulty. More than 33,000 defectors from the North currently live in South Korea. Many children leave their families to be smuggled out of North Korea and some are forced to leave their parents in order to escape. The majority of defectors are women and many children of defectors were born in China to North Korean mothers who were victims of human trafficking. Once in South Korea, there are many challenges these families and children face to integrate into this new society and find a hopeful future.

You can help support these vulnerable children and families through three important projects detailed below. Our goal is to raise $4,000 by June 21 to help North Korean children and families find a hopeful future.

Thank you!
WFWP USA

KUEN KKUM SARANG 큰 꿈 사랑

education & support for North Korean defectors

WFP Korea has supported education for North Korean defectors through after school programs which empower students to grow and learn in mind and heart. Additionally, WFP Korea has created programs in partnership with these projects that include Art Therapy and Counseling, character education, and parent-child camps.

education & support for North Korean defectors

The banner features two circular images: on the left, four women holding a sign that reads '지구구속사랑 1%운동 불박이 장' (1% Love Share Campaign); on the right, a classroom scene with students at desks.

KumKang School (금강학교) was established in 2013 to facilitate the ability for children who were born in North Korea and other developing countries to access quality education. In addition to general tutoring, they offer tutoring in Hangeul (Korean language) especially for North Korean children born in other countries.

The goals of WFP in supporting these projects are:

- Improve the quality of education for North Korean children.
- Provide opportunities for stable school life and self-reliance.
- Emphasize the importance of positive character development.
- Create a culture of love that uniquely impacts every child.

A third project which WFP Korea supports and your 1% Love Share funds will go towards this year will be NK Human Rights International Association (북한인권국제연대) which helps North Korean defectors who are escaping via third countries. Below is a picture of the escape routes many mothers, daughters, sisters, and children must take to escape North Korea in hopes of a better future. This is even more critical than before, as the Covid-19 pandemic has severely impacted the ability of many to flee.

The 1% Love Share Project is a unique campaign initiated by Women's Federation for World Peace International to eradicate poverty through the donation of even 1% of your income per month to those less fortunate around the globe, especially women and children. As members of the human family, it is up to us to look across boundaries and borders and to send our love to those suffering, hungry, and in need.

In 2021, WFWP USA is joining WFWP Korea through the 1% Love Share Project to support three important projects for North Korean people.

The life of North Korean defectors is often fraught with difficulty. More than 33,000 defectors from the North currently live in South Korea. Many children leave their families to be smuggled out of North Korea and some are forced to leave their parents in order to escape. Back home, some North Korean children have had to work instead of attending school just to support their families and thus have lower educational achievement. The majority of defectors are women, who are often smuggled by Chinese border patrol to be sold as captive wives. Thus, many children of defectors in South Korea were born in China to North Korean mothers who were victims of human trafficking. (Source) Once in South Korea, there are many challenges these families and children face to integrate into this new society and find a hopeful future. WFP USA is joining with WFP Korea to support these vulnerable children and families.

Your support funds the following projects:

- Kuen Kkum Sarang (큰 꿈 사랑) was established in 2020 and its main purpose is to provide education that fosters successful settlement of North Korean defectors in South Korean society. They help provide a smooth transition for these children into a stable school life through quality education and character development.

The goals of WFP in supporting these projects are:

- Improve the quality of education for North Korean children.
- Provide opportunities for stable school life and self-reliance.
- Emphasize the importance of positive character development and character education.
- Create a culture of love that uniquely impacts every child.

A third project which WFPW Korea supports and your 1% Love Share funds will go towards this year will be NK Human Rights International Association (북한인권국제연대) which helps North Korean defectors who are escaping via third countries. To get involved, simply sign up for a one-time or recurring payment to the 1% Love Share Project above, and share the project with friends and family. Just imagine what one small act of love can do. Checks can also be mailed to WFPW USA at 481 8th Avenue Suite 1228, New York, NY 10001

The small offering you give will help North Korean children to continue their education, develop character skills, and build the life they desire.
