Dear Women and Mothers of Peace,

Greetings of love and peace!

We are eager to resume with our Interfaith Women's Prayer Circle this coming Saturday, August 14, 2021 at 1 pm ET!

WHY? Because our families, communities, America and we ourselves need prayers like fresh air. We need an uplift from the highest SOURCE as we all long for guidance and a spiritual compass to be better able to navigate through these challenging times.

Please, read the quote below, and be ready to share your insights and reflections as well as share this invitation with other women and mothers of prayer!!

Also, at this time, I would like to sincerely thank our beloved Rev. Dr. Linda Nishikawa, who has been co-leading this effort since January 2021, and is now moving on to many new responsibilities. Dr. Linda truly poured her heart, soul, effort and passion into creating a strong foundation for this important prayer circle, and will of course stay connected. Once again, a big THANK YOU to you, Dr. Linda!!! We wish you greatest blessings and love from our Creator for the work you are and will be doing!

A very warm welcome to Mrs. Sahara Cardenas, a young mother of 5, who is also our WFWP Regional Coordinator in the Midwest. She immediately stepped up to this role as my co-leadership when I asked her! Thank you for that, Sahara! WELCOME Mrs. Sahara Cardenas!

We look forward to increasing our Interfaith prayer circle in this next stage of development.

Hear you on the call this Saturday!

With love and gratitude,
Angelika Selle and Sahara Cardenas

Mother of Peace: A Memoir

By Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, page 198

Healthy societies of all races, nations and religions arise on the foundation of morality and ethics, which in turn arise on the foundation of the love of God between husband and wife, parents and children. This love of God in the family is the source of absolute values, values that are universally shared and taught by all religions. We inspired faith leaders to work together and teach these universally shared values. We actually have invested more of our movement's resources on this than on the growth of our church.
