Dear Women and Mothers of Peace,

Greetings!

We are eager to resume with our Interfaith Women's Prayer Circle this coming Saturday, August 28, 2021 at 1 pm ET!

With the intention to unite in heart, we would like to gather together as women, sisters and mothers to pray for love, peace and healing for our nation, especially during these intense times. Our blossoming sisterhood provides a prayerful space for integration, unity and hope to serve our families, communities and the world.

Please, read the quote below, and be ready to share your insights and reflections as well as share this invitation with other women and mothers of prayer!

Looking forward to hearing you on the call!

With love and gratitude,
Angelika Selle and Sahara Cardenas

Mother of Peace: A Memoir

By Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, page 158

"My husband once called me a High Priest. He said that in God's dispensation until this era, men were the high priests, but we are entering the age of the wife, and women need to fulfill the priestly ministry. It is women whom our Heavenly Parent is calling to serve as the mediators of forgiving, purifying and regenerating grace to all humanity."
