Dear Women Leaders of Peace,

We are excited to announce our speakers for the upcoming GWPN Forum, “Women’s Leadership in Peacemaking & Reconciliation: Catalysts for Positive Change -

Arts and Culture” taking place on October 20th, 2021 at 8:00 PM EDT. These three amazing women bring a wealth of experience from their unique artistic backgrounds and experience inspiring positive change in others through their work.

Arts and culture have the powerful potential to transform and heal hearts as well as build bridges between people. In these challenging times where we see divisions all around us, we need these catalysts for positive change more than ever before. Join the Global Women’s Peace Network as we discuss practical ways arts and culture can uplift and transform our society.

Click below to register and be a part of this extraordinary program. If you registered already, feel free to invite your friends and colleagues. The program is free and open to the public.

Stay tuned as we will introduce more about each speaker next week and reveal our special cultural performance.

See you soon!
