Introducing Mrs. Denise Lyles-Cook, our first speaker for the upcoming Global Women's Peace Network series on *Women's Leadership in Reconciliation and Peacemaking!

During next week's forum on Catalysts for Positive Change - Arts and Culture, she will be sharing insights on "Vanishing Authenticity in Entertainment Today: The Trend." She will discuss the cultural trend in today's entertainment industry, the value of being authentic, and the importance of living from our authentic selves in the world of entertainment.

Smiles abundant, a burst of energy, mesmerizing audiences with her stellar performances, Denise Lyles-Cook, is known as The ORACLE for her insight and caring ear. She brings to the stage a wealth of experience as a Motivational Speaker, Published Author, Educator and Artist., and is well known as a Healer of the heart, mind, body and soul. She is the Owner/Operator of ORACLE Publishing, a boutique performance, editing, design and copy writing company.

Denise is a prolific writer of two published books and brings to life words penned by her hand and others; she invites in, then envelopes her audience with her wisdom. Why the title The ORACLE? In her words, "I'm told I say what people need to hear." Her works represent her true nature and is summed up in The ORACLE's motto, "all-ways remember to love yourself."

Register today and join us for the session on Thursday, October 20 at 8 PM EDT.
