Dear Women and Mothers of Peace,

Happy December!

We look forward to our upcoming Interfaith Women's Prayer Circle this coming Saturday, December 4, 2021 at 1 pm EDT, where we will share insights on the healing power of music and the arts, and how it brings people together in heart and builds connections that can change the world.

During the Prayer Circle session, we also welcome anyone who would like to share a brief testimony for two minutes as to "HOW YOU OVERCAME A CHALLENGE THIS WEEK."

Please, read the quote below, and be ready to share your insights and reflections as well as share this invitation with other women and mothers of prayer!

Looking forward to hearing you on the call!

With love and gratitude,
Angelika Selle and Sahara Cardenas

Mother of Peace Memoir
By Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, page 69-70

"A child alone may not make much impact but when a group of children come together and sing with pure hearts, their voices can melt hardened hearts and dispel war and conflict. People often think that politics moves the world, but that is not the case. It is culture and art that move the world. It is affection, not reason, that touches people to their innermost being. When hearts become receptive, ideologies and political regimes can change."
