

WFWP USA: National Prayer Call for Healing and Peace in Ukraine - April 29

Angelika Selle
April 29, 2022

Dear Women of Faith and Women of Peace,

Thank you for having prayed with us over the last eight weeks for peace between Russia and the Ukraine!

We are deeply saddened that the war is still going on, and that there is no clear evidence as to when it might end! We were hoping when we started this prayer effort, we could conclude it within a month or two, yet we are now even beyond that.

Based on some feedback, we would like to get your input after our upcoming prayer call tomorrow, how to proceed in terms of also getting support in organizing each prayer call. Our format will overall be the same as previous ones, yet, we would like to add a couple minutes for sharing and your feedback.

Let us surely raise our voices to Heaven for divine intervention for Russia to find a way to stop the war!

Looking forward to hearing you on the call tomorrow:
