Horizon Summit Tour Options

On Sunday, March 18, participants have the opportunity to choose from one of four tours in New York. The cost of the tours is not included in the overall Horizon Summit registration fee. Participants should be prepared to pay estimated costs listed here.

1. FDR Presidential Library and Val-Kill

The FDR Presidential Library and Museum and the Home of Franklin D. Roosevelt are exceptional exhibitions about the history and contributions of Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt in the US and on the world level including their involvement in the founding of the United Nations and the drafting of Universal Declaration of Human Rights. The significance of the Roosevelt era is portrayed with interactive exhibits, immersive audio-visual theaters, and rarely seen artifacts. Val-Kill National Historic Site includes Eleanor Roosevelt's summer cottage and is the site where she worked on drafting the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

Estimated total Cost: $75 adult, $45 senior (65+)

Cost includes

- Admission to FDR Presidential Library and Museum as well as the Eleanor Roosevelt National Historic Site (Val-Kill)- $20 adult, $12 senior
- Round trip transportation by train from Grand Central station in New York to Poughkeepsie New York- $37 adult, $24.50 senior
- Lunch at Coppola's restaurant in Hyde Park New York~ $18

2. East Garden

East Garden is historic not only for the age and grandeur of its property, but also for its role as the former primary residence of WFWP's founders Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon and her late husband Rev. Dr. Sun Myung Moon. This tour includes the original building as well as the more recent structure, museum and grounds. On this tour guests can learn about the achievements and history of this remarkable couple and connect to their incredible vision and heart.

Estimated Total Cost: $28.50 adult, $22 senior

Cost includes:

- Transportation by train Grand Central to Irvington station by train
 - Adult roundtrip- $18.50
 - Senior roundtrip- $12
 - Catered lunch- $10

3. Metropolitan Museum of Art

This historic museum has served as a center of art in NY since it opened in 1880. Since then the Met has developed into a building with galleries and exhibits spanning more than two million square feet filled with art of all cultures spanning 5,000 years. With its vast collection in one facility, this magnificent museum reveals unexpected connections and shared ideas across time and culture.

- Sunday Hours: 10:00 am-5:30 pm

Estimated Total Cost: $3 + admission donation (optional)

Cost includes:

- Transportation: Subway line 4: Grand Central to 86th st.
- Admission

4. National September 11 Memorial and Museum

The impact of the fateful day of 9/11 in 2001 has been felt around the world. This exhibit gives a unique opportunity to imagine the experience of the people in New York on that day. With rarely-seen videos, unique photographs, stories and audio from people who were there and even the chance to touch items left from the devastation, this is truly an immersive and impactful experience. Also importantly, this is a Not-For-Profit museum from which all the proceeds go directly to families affected by 9/11 and to FDNY charities.

- Sunday Hours: 12:00 pm-4:00 pm

Estimated Total Cost: $28

Cost includes:

- Admission- $25
- Transportation by Subway- $3

This year's theme:
"Rising Side by Side"

Saturday, March 17 and
Sunday, March 18, 2018

4 West 43rd St. New York, NY 10036

Join us for an interactive weekend of capacity building sessions and New York tours. The first day of the event, March 17, will consist of an opening plenary in the morning and capacity building sessions in the afternoon. The capacity building sessions will convey skills, strategies, and insights related to peace leadership that participants can use in their personal and professional lives.

Themes confirmed for capacity building sessions include advocacy, reconciliation, peace studies, education and training, and peace leadership. Capacity building sessions will be offered at two times in the afternoon and participants will have the opportunity to choose between a variety of topics. A memo will be sent soon concerning the topic and speaker for confirmed sessions.

On Sunday, March 18, participants will have the opportunity to choose from one of four tours during the day. Tour options include: (1) The FDR Presidential Library and Val Kill National Historic Site in Hyde Park, New York; (2) East Garden in Tarrytown, New York; (3) the National September 11 Memorial and Museum, in downtown Manhattan; (4) and the Metropolitan Museum of Art near Central Park. Dinner and a closing program will take place in the evening.
