

FFWPU International: Special Grace Ceremonies in Thailand and Philippines

Song Yong cheon
February 23, 2025

Ceremony conducted at Bangkok, Thailand Headquarters Church

Bangkok, Thailand Headquarters Church

A special grace Holy Wine ceremony for entering the Cheon Il Sanctum of Cheon Won Gung was held on February 23 at the Bangkok headquarters church in Thailand. About 300 people participated in the ceremony, including parents, children, and single-family members, following 21 days of Hoon Dok Hae readings and Cheon Shim Won devotions.

Kamol Thananopavarn, President of FFWPU Thailand, shared testimony about True Mother's deep devotion and heartfelt preparations for the entrance to the Cheon Il Sanctum of Cheon

Won Gung. The members expressed profound gratitude for the grace that allowed them to make a new beginning through this special Holy Wine ceremony and firmly resolved to achieve victory.

Ceremony at Manila, Philippines Church

Ceremony at Cauayan, Philippines Church

Meanwhile, in the Philippines, the first special grace Holy Wine ceremony was conducted on March 2 with 860 members participating both online and offline.

Continental Chair Masaichi Hori explained the significance of the Holy Wine ceremony and emphasized the importance of preparing for a new era centered on Holy Mother Han, True Mother.

The members presented their resolutions for a new start and pledged to make this a turning point for living pure and faithful lives during this era of the Cheon Il Sanctum of Cheon Won Gung Entrance Ceremony, with determination to bring victory to True Parents.