

Part Time Positions Open for Northeast Sub-Region 1 YAYAM, BFM & Education

Miilhan Stephens
March 16, 2018

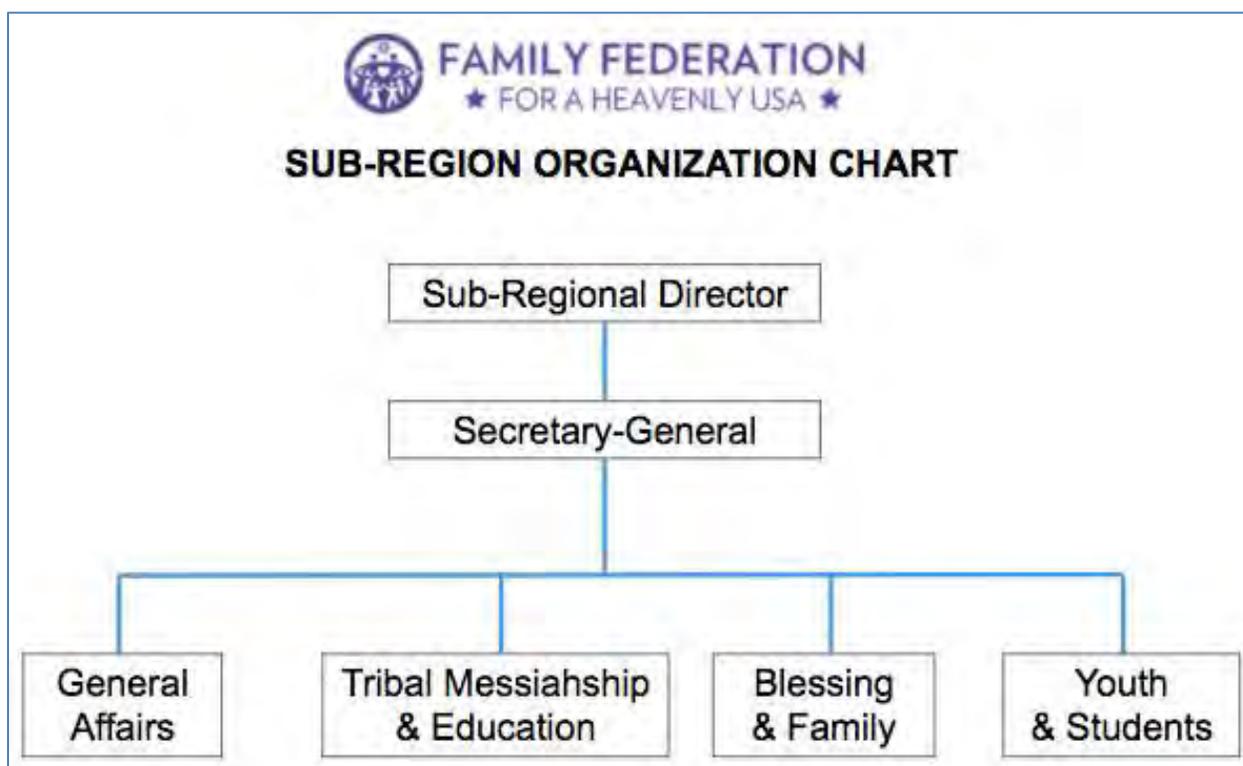

Job Title: Northeast Subregional YAYAM, BFM & Education Coordinator

Job Location: NY/NJ Area

Job Type: Part Time

Job Description:

True Mother recently reorganized the leadership structure in order to give more attention to the local leadership and members to fulfill their responsibilities. We now have 5 sub-regions (NE, SE, MW, SW, W) that exist to serve the local leadership. Below is the organization structure.

In our Northeast Region, Demian Dunkley was appointed Director and Miilhan Stephens serves as Secretary General. They are now seeking candidates for Coordinator positions in the areas of Education, Blessing and Family, and Youth and Students. We ask your help to encourage friends and family to apply. These are wonderful opportunities to learn and connect with our dynamic team at headquarters and also be able to serve the communities that are giving their best to make a difference. If you're not sure if you should apply or not, please consider praying about it. We trust that God is going to work through whomever takes on this responsibility.

To get a better idea of what this role entails, please look at the job descriptions below. If you feel at all intimidated by them, don't be. We are primarily looking for those who have a calling for this ministry and are happy to train and empower you to succeed.

For questions or to apply, please contact Miilhan Stephens at northeasthq@unification.org

Northeast Subregional YAYAM Coordinator

Role Description

Role Objective:

True Mother has recently reorganized our national movement into five "Subregions". Each subregion has a director and a respective coordinator in the areas of Witnessing and Education, Blessing and Family Ministry, and YAYAM (youth and young adults). We see this as an exciting opportunity to empower local ownership and development.

We are looking to find a YAYAM representative in the NE subregion who will work closely with the National YAYAM team and the subregional director to coordinate and support the YAYAM activities within their subregion.

Main Responsibilities:

Communicate regularly with the Subregional Director regarding activities related to YAYAM.

Coordinate and/or support activities within the subregion related to YAYAM with the support of the National YAYAM Team

Communication with Blessing and Family Ministries within the subregion

- Connect with YAYAM coordinators, matching and Blessing supporters and other's working in the area of YAYAM on a monthly basis at minimum
- Collect monthly reports and summary of activities for National YAYAM
- Share information and opportunities from National YAYAM with local leadership in subregion
- Monthly check-in with National YAYAM Director and YAYAM Team

Support Local Ministries

- Build a team to help with carrying out YAYAM activities
- Visit key communities once a semester
- Support subregional-level events and initiatives

Support National YAYAM Events

- Help plan and coordinate regular YAYAM Events
- Attend other national Family Fed events (ie. Famicon)

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree
- 2+ years' experience involved in youth ministry (paid or volunteer)
- Regular attendance of meetings in the NY/NJ area
- Strong organizational and communication skills
- High level of initiative and ownership

Hours:

- 5-10 hours per week
-

Northeast Subregional BFM Coordinator

Role Description

Role Objective:

True Mother has recently reorganized our national movement into five "Subregions". Each subregion has a director and a respective coordinator in the areas of Witnessing and Education, Blessing and Family Ministry, and YAYAM (youth and young adults). We see this as an exciting opportunity to empower local ownership and development.

We are looking for a BFM representative in the NE subregion who will work closely with the National BFM team and the subregional director to coordinate and support the BFM activities within Subregion 1.

Main Responsibilities:

Communicate regularly with the Subregional Director regarding activities related to BFM.

Coordinate and/or support activities within the subregion related to BFM with the support of the National BFM Team

Communication with Blessing and Family Ministries within the subregion

- Connect with BFM coordinators, matching and Blessing supporters and other's working in the area of BFM on a monthly basis at minimum

- Collect monthly reports and summary of activities for National BFM
- Share information and opportunities from National BFM with local leadership in subregion
- Monthly check-in with National BFM Director and BFM Team

Support Local Ministries

- Build a team to help with carrying out BFM activities
- Visit key communities once a semester
- Support subregional-level events and initiatives

Support National BFM Events

- Help plan and coordinate regular BFM Events
- Attend other national Family Fed events (ie. Famicon)

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree
- 2+ years' experience involved in ministry (paid or volunteer)
- Regular attendance of meetings in the NY/NJ area
- Strong organizational and communication skills
- High level of initiative and ownership

Hours:

- 5-10 hours per week
-

Northeast Subregional Education Coordinator

Role Description

Role Objective:

True Mother has recently reorganized our national movement into five “Subregions”. Each subregion has a director and a respective coordinator in the areas of Witnessing and Education, Blessing and Family Ministry, and YAYAM (youth and young adults). We see this as an exciting opportunity to empower local ownership and development.

We are looking to find a representative in the NE subregion who will work closely with the National Witnessing and Education team and the subregional director to coordinate and support Education activities within their subregion.

Main Responsibilities:

Communicate regularly with the Subregional Director regarding activities related to education.

Coordinate and/or support activities within the subregion related to Education with the support of the National Witnessing and Education Team

Communication with ministries related to Education within the subregion

- Connect with workshop leaders, lecturers, witnessing groups, and others who are educating both members and visitors on monthly basis (at minimum)
- Collect monthly reports and summary of activities for the National Witnessing and Education Ministry
- Share information and opportunities from the National Witnessing and Education Ministry with local leadership in subregion
- Propose solutions to problems experienced in the local communities
- Monthly check-in with Director of Witnessing and Education and the Team

Support Local Ministries

- Build an education team
- Visit key communities once a semester
- Support subregional-level events and initiatives

Support National Witnessing and Education Events

- Help plan and coordinate regular Events
- Attend other national Family Fed events (ie. Famicon)

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree
- 2+ years' experience involved in ministry (paid or volunteer)
- Regular attendance of meetings in the NY/NJ area
- Strong organizational and communication skills
- High level of initiative and ownership

Hours:

- 5-10 hours per week