Dear,

Today marks 100 days until June 26 when we want to hold a blessing festival to welcome True Mother back to America. I am sure will be hearing lots about it but we should all begin with setting on minds towards victory on the day and beyond. This is not just another rally but he's part of an ongoing strategy for the next seven years. We want this to be one step along with victorious pass to fulfilling all of the seven goals that America has pledged by 2027. Please pray for victory and determine yourself to be part of the victory.

Tomorrow, HQ will host the blessed family summit. It is filled with wonderful tools and information which we can all learn from and use. I hope you can sign up and attend.

This evening there is the mother of peace webinar to help understand how to use True Mother's memoir in doing outreach to clergy and our online holy communities.

The goal of our online holy communities is to substantially live for the sake of others. To take it from being a slogan to a reality. First step is to sign up for leadership, attend the weekly training, pray for those who you want to invite to your community, make a Trinity, and then take a long-term approach to make it successful.

I want to recognize Lawrence Mock who has taken on the responsibility to be our ethnic ministry coordinator. Let us support him in his new mission. I also want to acknowledge Kouki Tamura who is Our YCLC coordinator. Let us support Kouki also.

This week Yuuki Tanaka will give the message at BAFC Sunday service. Church is open for those who are comfortable. Wear a mask and keep social distancing and let's make a wonderful atmosphere at our church.

God Bless
