The Hyo Jeong International Foundation for the Unity of the Sciences (HJIFUS), also called "Mother's Project," seeks Marketing Director, Art Director, and Editor.

Job Title: Editor, Art Director, and Marketing Director

Job Location: 3600 New York Ave NE, Washington, DC 20002

Job Type: Full Time

Job Description:

The Hyo Jeong International Foundation for the Unity of the Sciences (HJIFUS) is creating environmental publications targeting the general public. The publications will run ten or more editorial sections on various environmental issues including news and fact-based commentary. In the wake of growing worldwide concerns about environmental problems and how they can be addressed, this is a good opportunity for anyone who is aspiring to be a professional journalist on the environment and to show people why we must preserve nature.

These jobs can be part time or full time depending on applicant's availability.

ROLE QUALIFICATIONS for Editor

Knowledge about environment-related issues.

Knowledge of commercial/marketing principles and strategies on periodicals.

Experience in planning, research, editing, and project management.

Good oral and written communication skills.

A bachelor's degree from an accredited university in a STEM-related field. A background in environmental studies and experiences and/or a master's degree is preferred.

ROLE QUALIFICATIONS for Art Director

Knowledge of design principles for both online and print publications.

Knowledge of basic design software such as InDesign, QuarkXPress, etc., and the use of Mac computers.

Knowledge of website building programs/services.

A bachelor's degree in Art/Design.

ROLE QUALIFICATIONS for Marketing Director

Knowledge of commercial/marketing principles and strategies on periodicals.

Experience in competitor research and finding the target market.

Knowledge of creating demand for an organization's services and products.
