Ambassadors for Peace, Colleagues, Volunteers and Friends of UPF

On behalf of the Founder, Dr. Hak Ja Han Moon, the Board of Directors and the dedicated staff of UPF International, we offer our thoughts, sincere prayers and good wishes during this very challenging time of the coronavirus pandemic.

As we all recognize, the virus is having a devastating impact on our quality of life, the global economy, and, most immediately, on the health and well being of friends and family members all across the world. We feel special solidarity and sympathy for countries that have been hit the hardest by the virus.

We trust that this time of suffering and crisis will pass and that we will emerge stronger, wiser and better equipped to face any similar crisis that arises in the future.

We are all members of one human family. We are one family under God. Let us turn this crisis into an opportunity and let us find ways to help one another and spread hope and encouragement.

UPF will continue to do its best to contribute to building a world of lasting peace.

Thank you for your support and encouragement.

May God's blessing be with each one of you, your families and your nations.

Sincerely yours,
Thomas G. Walsh, Ph.D.
Chairman, Universal Peace Federation
