On this day we visited the 27 Charcos de Damajagua. It is a natural site that attracts many tourists. Along the way, we were greeted by the sun overarching the luscious green hills and the rural countryside. When we arrived at our destination, we were all stoked and excited to jump and slide down waterfalls ranging from 3 feet to 20 feet. We all had a blast and many of us definitely conquered some fears like the fear of heights and jumping into unknown depths with the "Just Do It" mentality.

Then, we arrived in Santiago where we were greeted by the CARP members and local second generation at the church center. We ended the night with icebreakers to get to know the members and ate some Dominican ice cream to top it all off. Even though we are meeting so many people for the first time, it feels like we are reuniting with our family.
