Re. : PEACE ROAD 2018

May the blessings and love of Heavenly Parent and True Parents be with all mission nations.

Throughout their lives, True Parents have worked to realize one global family under God that transcends the barriers of race and nationality. Peace Road 2018 aims to testify about True Parents' peace ideology and achievements all over the world. Please refer to the information stated below when hosting Peace Road in your respective regions and nations.

1. Title: PEACE ROAD 2018

2. Purpose and Objectives

- A. To widely testify about True Parents' teachings on peace, about their achievements, and in particular about their endeavors to realize the ideal of "One Family under God" that transcends all racial and national boundaries.
- B. To unify the hearts of members worldwide and channel this unity to become a driving force for the fulfillment of Vision 2020
- C. To forge an active international peace network of parliamentarians from each nation and region through the International Association of Parliamentarians for Peace (IAPP).

3. Guidelines for Hosting PEACE ROAD 2018

- A. PEACE ROAD 2018 must be hosted in conjunction (coordination) with the International Association of Parliamentarians for Peace (IAPP) in each region.
- B. Each country is strongly encouraged to appoint incumbent parliamentarians or government officials as members (or senior advisors) of the 2018 PEACE ROAD Preparatory Committee. The committee should actively promote the purpose and objectives of PEACE ROAD to leaders within the regions and nations. (Testifying about the great 120-nation journey that was PEACE ROAD 2017 is strongly suggested). Each nation is strongly encouraged to host PEACE ROAD 2018 in the parliament (or a public place or government office building). Once the regional-level event is completed, national level-events and local events should be held if possible.

4. Themes

- A. General Theme: Connecting the World through Peace (Tentative)
- B. Regional or National Themes: Each region (nation) is encouraged to have a supplementary theme. For example, Korea: One Korea, One World

5. Hosting PEACE ROAD in Each Nation

A. Time: Each country must select the appropriate time in consultation with the regional headquarters.

B. Venue: Parliament or government office building.

(In the event that a nation cannot host PEACE ROAD either in the parliament complex or at a government office building, the event can be held in a public place)

C. Main program:

1) Present the PEACE ROAD promotional video (A video file will be provided)

2) Congratulatory addresses (by national-level leaders such as parliamentarians, etc.)

3) Invite key leaders to sign the “Peace Road Banner” and take a group photo

4) Exhibit PEACE ROAD photos in the event hall (promotional photos will be provided)

5) Host PEACE ROAD along the designated course (PEACE ROAD banners and bicycle flags will be provided)

D. Riding along the PEACE ROAD course:

Each country is strongly advised to arrange for people to ride along the designated course after the main event is completed. Furthermore, the selected course should run through or pass by famous places or national landmarks. Flags and/or banners promoting Peace Road, world peace and so on should be used throughout the course. Each nation can decide whether to ride bicycles, march on foot, drive cars or use other means of transportation along the designated course. (Attachment #4)

6. Reporting Your Events

A. Reporting regional plans for PEACE ROAD

Mongol, Asia (Aug. 12, 2017) : In the Mongol Peace Road, participants rode camels across the Gobi desert. Mongol Peace won the “This year’s Peace Road” prize for its unique style effectively utilizing the regional culture.

France, Europe (Aug. 4, 2017) : France added much value to its Peace Road by holding peace event in Verdun, Germany where nearly 300,000 lives were lost during the World War I. The Peace Road team also visited Brandenburger Tor which symbolizes the friendship between France and Germany to reflect and remember the war torn history.

Russia, Europe (June – Aug. 2017) Russia held total of three Peace Road projects. In the 1st project participants completed the 800 km marathon relay. The second project was held on the Day of International Friendship in three nations such as Ukraine and Belarus. In the last project participants cycled in the Ryazan city central park and held commemorative concert in front of the many local citizens, bringing the Peace Road to a successful end.
