There is a misconception that
Buddhism is a religion, and that you worship Buddha.
Buddhism is a practice, like yoga.
You can be a Christian and practise Buddhism.
I met a Catholic priest who lives in a Buddhist monastery in France.
He told me that Buddhism makes him a better Christian. I love that.

In Buddhism today, many people pray for blessing in front of a statue of Buddha.

The external difference between the subject and the object in this instance would be enormous.

However, in the world of heart, there would be no difference.

If they believe and connect to it as God by the feelings inspired there, then God does not abandon such minds.

He fulfills their wishes.

The phrase "a wish come true" originates from this. When we consider these things, our past and present life have been overly insensitive and unsentimental.

We have had a desolate cosmic view.

You should feel sorrow about this.

If you become a person who does feel sorrow about this situation, then you will be called "a new person" in the new world and will be able to take responsibility for the new age.

I have confidence this is true.

We should become a people who can forget our own sad feelings by the joy we feel from looking at growing grass, instead of frowning and lamenting as we look at our environment and the problems of society.

If there is such a person, he would remain in the new age. If there is a person who aspires to the ideal and heartistic world, he would indeed try desperately to make a certain relationship with God.

1965

I stayed in Japan for two weeks before I came here. During that time, five leading members of Buddhism and Shintoism joined our group through the guidance and messages of the spirit world.

In this way, unification of the world will be fulfilled.

Otherwise, how could we unify all religions?

1965

Each religious founder, in order to start his mission, has had some responsibility.

On the final day when God's will is completely fulfilled, these founders are to bring a certain number of dedicated followers to God.

1965

The higher and larger the religion, the more people the founders must bring on the final day.

Supposing Buddha has 10 million people to bring to God.

Then Buddha is responsible for testifying to his followers what our Leader has done, and what our truth stands for.

/SMM March and April 1965

Buddhism teaches, "To benefit yourself, give benefit to others."

This means that whatever one does for others will ultimately benefit oneself.

This teaching contains a very profound truth.

In their ascetic practices both Unificationists and Buddhists eschew the extremes of self-mortification which is understood by the former to enhance self-righteousness and by the latter to heighten the illusion of the "self."

For Unificationism, however, ascetic practice has the purpose of re-orienting sense experience towards G o d whereas in Buddhism the overcoming of craving leads to the awareness of no-self.

The color of the lotus has an important bearing on the symbology associated with it:

White Lotus (Skt. pundarika; Tib. pad ma dkar po):

This represents the state of spiritual perfection and total mental purity (bodhi).

It is associated with the White Tara and proclaims her perfect nature, a quality which is reinforced by the color of her body.

- Pink Lotus (Skt. padma; Tib. pad ma dmar po):

This the supreme lotus, generally reserved for the highest deity. Thus naturally it is associated with the Great Buddha himself.

- Red Lotus (Skt. kamala; Tib: pad ma chu skyes):

This signifies the original nature and purity of the heart (hrdya). It is the lotus of love, compassion, passion and all other qualities of the heart.

It is the flower of Avalokiteshvara, the bodhisattva of compassion.

Blue Lotus (Skt. utpala; Tib. ut pa la):

This is a symbol of the victory of the spirit over the senses, and signifies the wisdom of knowledge.

Not surprisingly, it is the preferred flower of Manjushri, the bodhisattva of wisdom.

The Coming Buddha

- According to Buddhist scripture, Gautama predicted that at some future time another Buddha would come to help men set up an ideal kingdom of righteousness and peace. The coming Buddha is called Mettaya, (Sanskrit: Maitreya) meaning "love."

- Gautama is not expected to return; Maitreya is a different person whose mission and status are identical to that of Gautama. According to the oldest texts, Buddha does not promise to come back; what he promises is that Maitreya will become the next Buddha whose success will be far greater than his own. Also, Maitreya will bring to fulfillment the Buddhist Dhamma and inaugurate an era of cosmic bliss; he will do so as a teacher and holy man.

Nirvana!

Buddhism

“Nirodha” extinguishes all forms of clinging and attachment. This means that suffering can be overcome through human activity, simply by removing the cause of suffering.

Attaining and perfecting dispassion is a process of many levels that ultimately results in the state of Nirvana.

Nirvana means freedom from all worries, troubles, complexes, fabrications and ideas.

The Five Cardinal Principles of Islam are:

- 1) Faith in God, His message, and His messengers;
- 2) Meditation and prayer on the glory, greatness, and the message of God for spiritual growth;
- 3) Helping others by giving charity;
- 4) Austerity for self-purification by fasting in the month of Ramadan; and
- 5) Pilgrimage to the holy places.

Zen Art

Zen is a school of Maha-ya-na Buddhism.
The word Zen is from the Japanese pronunciation of the Chinese word Chán, which in turn is derived from the Sanskrit word dhya-na, which can be approximately translated as "meditation" or "meditative state".

The teachings of Zen include various sources of Maha-ya-na thought, including the Prajña-pa-ramita- literature, Madhyamaka, Yoga-ca-ra and the Tatha-gatagarbha Sutras.

The emergence of Zen as a distinct school of Buddhism was first documented in China in the 7th century CE.

From China, Zen spread south to Vietnam, and east to Korea and Japan

Now lets practice Zen!

1. RELAX

When you are lying down comfortably, concentrate on your senses. Begin with the sense of touch.

- Feel your skin.
- Feel any breeze, whether it's hot or cold, the pressure of your clothing, the bed, etc. on your body.
- Close your eyes.

2. WASHING THE DISHES

- Focus your mind. While you do your most loathed chore, again concentrate on physical sensation. Feel the warmth of the dishwater on your hands. Try to distinguish smells, sound, or sense of touch and texture.
- Focus on one sensation at a time. When I'm ironing, I find the sound of steam boiling from the iron especially pleasing.
- Focus on those sensations you find most pleasant.

3. FOOD

- Slow down when you eat. It will make no more than five minutes' difference
- When eating, concentrate on the taste and texture of what you put inside.

3. FOOD

- Using the Zen method, visualize and experience the sensation of it entering your body and fusing with your system.
- Concentrate on the energy and health that it gives you.
- Smell the food and see it, feel the utensils in your hands.
- Become entirely involved in the eating process with both body and mind.
- Stop eating when you feel you have had just enough; not too much.

3. FOOD

- Using the Zen method, visualize and experience the sensation of it entering your body and fusing with your system.
- Concentrate on the energy and health that it gives you.

3. FOOD

- Eat again only when you feel hungry and continue applying the Zen method.
- Get to know your body and its needs.

4. WATER

- Water is even more essential to life than food.
- Required six to eight glasses of water a day.
- Drinking a lot of water helps to keep your weight down and your health up.
- Combining water drinking with Zen enhances its benefit.

4. WATER

- Drinking water in its unadulterated form is both refreshing and energizing.
- When you feel tired or hot, leave the soft drinks and beer in the fridge.
- Open the tap. Put your hand under it until the water is at its coldest.
- Concentrate on the physical sensation of it.

4. WATER

- Fill a glass and drink the water.
- As with the eating exercise, feel the path of the water into your body.
- Feel it refreshing you and blessing your cells with its health.
- Both your body and mind will be energized.

5. BODY AND MIND

- Focus on your muscles and how they contract and relax.
- Focus on one muscle group at a time.
- Also concentrate on contracting and relaxing the muscle consciously as you exercise it.
- In this way not only your body is involved; your mind also contributes greatly to sculpting the perfect you.

5. BODY AND MIND

- In any mental activity, your enjoyment is increased using Zen.
- Before sitting down to a mental activity, breathe deeply a few times.
- Then begin with the physical senses.

5. BODY AND MIND

- Concentrate on seeing the exact shade of the text, or whatever you are studying.
- Look at the texture of the material.
- Feel it with your fingers.
- Become aware of the scent emanating from the pages.

5. BODY AND MIND

- Then concentrate on the words and ideas entering your head.
- You can almost feel them.
- Feel your mind processing what you are studying.
- This will both benefit and improve studying, or any mental activity that you indulge in.

6. ZEN IN EVERYTHING

- Zen concentration will enhance your sense of enjoyment in whatever it is you're doing.
- If it's something you love, such as stroking a cat, listening to music, or playing in the pool, well-being is enhanced.

6. ZEN IN EVERYTHING

- If it is something you hate - washing the car, cleaning, cooking – a feeling of joy and pride in you.
- The Zen principle of concentration is not only fabulous for enhancing enjoyment.
It will do wonders for your physical health as well.

Differences

Buddhism

- personal salvation like Christianity seeking personal salvation
Detachments = Nirvana!
- Buddhas teaching, (coming Matreya)
- salvation only spiritual
- children born with suffering path is a web of illusion, and longing for liberation.
- The Coming Matreya

Unificationism

- Family salvation
- Two Saviours – True Parents
- Salvation both physical & spiritual
- Children born without orig. sin
- Continued revelation = Divine Princ, Biography, CheonSyongGeong, 1000 Volumes

Similarities

Buddhism

The thought manifests as the word; the word manifests as the deed; the deed develops into habit; and the habit hardens into character-
So watch the thought and its ways with care; and let it spring from love, born out of concern for all beings.

As the shadow follows the body,
as we think, so we become.
/Dhammapada

Unificationism

Unification Thought
Words affect our thought, so speaking good words will help recovery from illness.

This is in accord with UT:
The universe was created through Logos and performs its movements in accordance with Logos; in other words, the universe is supported by Logos. Human beings also were created through Logos, and their lives should be in complete accordance with Logos. Thus, the human being is a being of logos.

...in the Book of Revelation there is a picture of the New Jerusalem, the Holy City, coming down out of the heavens. And there was a door on the east and a door on the south, a door on the north and a door on the west - and when the teacher comes, he always has to come through the eastern gate.

In the Holy City of Jerusalem there is an eastern gate long since sealed and blocked. It will never be opened until the new teacher comes.

From the east comes mysticism - a willingness to be absorbed in God – God is not something apart - he is something within.

From the south comes all the beauty, the ritual - these things which adorn and make beautiful the message.

From the north came rational thought clear thinking - reformation - and change.

From the west came the critical, scientific analysis.

Quote: Arthur Ford sitting 1965

And now in the New Age, it is an age of orchestration
- of a symphony - of unity.

And the New Teacher will be neither Christian, Buddhist,
Moslem, or anything else.

The Holy Spirit speaks in universal terms - and God will no longer be fragmented.

Quote: Sung Han Lees, messages from Spiritual World

The Buddha's Message to Buddhists and Believers in Other Religions

“Dear Buddhists, I am not saying that your way of life thus far has been wrong. Like Jesus, in my time I also did my best to guide humankind in the right direction. However, with the passing of time, the tasks needed for the salvation of humankind have changed. What I am trying to do is to engraft the fruit of Buddhists who were raised through my methods of spiritual cultivation.

Please study the Unification Principle. You will find there a considerable number of truths that also flow through the teachings of Buddhism. Do not be immersed in old-fashioned ideas and concepts, but by accepting the new truth, engraft it to the truth of Buddhism. Then, I am sure that a wonderful passage of faith will open to you.”

“In this age Reverend Sun Myung Moon is the Buddha for whom you have been waiting. Make a special condition as a Buddhist at a shrine. It is time for you to be true to the highest standard of Buddhist integrity. Do not reject the new Buddha, who is to come in the Completed Testament Age. Do not reject his truth.”

Demonstrate the virtue of compassion as practiced by numerous Buddhists who have cultivated their spirituality. Do not look for faults in others, but act with humility and prudence. What is truth? Depending on the historical era, the direction for human beings can change. Look at the world of nature. All things God created can change in color and size, depending on the environment, but the species remain the same. Who can quell the voice of the original mind, through which human beings are striving to lead a life of faith? However, depending on the sound of the voice of the original mind, the mode of human life vary, bringing different aspects of joy to God.”

“Therefore, do not be fixed on an old-fashioned idea. Expand the horizon of your ideas and views. If I told you Jesus and Buddha are getting along as brothers, you Buddhists would not believe me. However, I cannot help it. God wants us to work together as one. In your opinion, what would Jesus call Buddha? He calls him "Honored Buddha" with a smile and a soft voice, always being humble. Once Buddha speaks, he always responds positively, with a bright and cheerful expression, saying: "Yes, right," " That is correct," and "Let's do it."

Dear fellow Buddhists and Christians, as Heaven and Earth are united as one, bringing the world of peace, should the Earth not be united as well? Let us be unified by the new truth in this new era. Reverend Sun Myung Moon is leading the Completed Testament Age, and he is the Buddha to come. This is the conclusion drawn in these seminars of the four major religious founders. Let us now liberate God, by bringing oneness between Buddhism and Christianity. “

/Spirit World April 6, 2001

Richard Feynman:

“I learned a way of expressing this common human problem - moral choice which led us to good work - on a trip to Honolulu. In a Buddhist temple there, the man in charge explained a little bit about the Buddhist religion for tourists, and then ended his talk by telling them he had something to say to them that they would never forget — and I have never forgotten it. It was a proverb of the Buddhist religion:

“To every man is given the key to the gates of heaven; the same key opens the gates of hell.”

Quote: Ten Theologians...- link

The strong impression given by Divine Principle of a creed which is optimistic, positive and life-affirming.

There are some significant phrases

"...the purpose of creation was to obtain joy, and joy can be obtained only when desire is fulfilled, If man had no desire or ambition, he could have no joy".

This is in direct opposition to creeds which show man's ultimate god as reached by the part of the extinction of desire.

The perspectives of Divine Principle are very different from those of Stoicism, Quietism or Buddhism,

Book of Prophecy Kyuk-Am-Yu-Rok

First of all, this man (the one to come) is the wise man whom Buddha sent;

Heaven predestined this thousands of years ago.

The fortune of this Messiah is as the coming of Buddha (Second Coming of Buddha to this world).

When this time arrives, the entire world will be in chaos.

Fire will fly and fall to the ground and the world will become hopelessly confused.

According to the Buddhist scriptures, Udumbara is an imaginary flower that only blossoms every 3000 years when the King of Falun comes to the human world.

This heavenly flower is a sign of rare preciousness and a miracle.
