Introduction

Recense of an Angel
Artist Benny Andersson

Introduction

- This is an attempt to collect some of what the Bible and Divine Principle and True Father has spoken about Angels.
- Included some folklore from the Unif. movement. You decide what's true. 😊

Background

- The word angel in English is a blend of Old English engel (with a hard g) and Old French angele. Both derive from Late Latin angelus "messenger of God", which in turn was borrowed from Late Greek ἄγγελος ángelos. According to R. S. P. Beekes, ángelos itself may be "an Oriental loan, like ἄγγαρος ['Persian mounted courier']."
- Angels, in a variety of religions, are regarded as spirits. They are often depicted as messengers of God in the Hebrew and Christian Bibles and the Quran.

- Daniel is the first biblical figure to refer to individual angels by name, mentioning Gabriel (God's primary messenger) in Daniel 9:21 and Michael (the holy fighter) in Daniel 10:13.

These angels are part of Daniel's apocalyptic visions and are an important part of all apocalyptic literature

Orthodox icon from Saint Catherine's Monastery, representing the archangels Michael and Gabriel. Along with Rafael counted as archangels of Jews, Christians and Muslims.

- The conception of angels is best understood in contrast to demons and is often thought to be "influenced by the ancient Persian religious tradition of Zoroastrianism, which viewed the world as a battleground between forces of good and forces of evil, between light and darkness." One of these "sons of God" is "the satan",
- A figure depicted in (among other places) the Book of Job.

Book of Mormon

- Mormons trace their origins to the visions that Joseph Smith reported having in the early 1820s while living in upstate New York.
- In 1823 Smith said an angel directed him to a buried book written on golden plates containing the religious history of an ancient people.

Angels in the Clouds

In the theological writings of Emanuel Swedenborg he describes heaven as consisting of a luxuriant landscape based on the inner qualities and richness of a person's heart and mind, that is, one's inner and spiritual reality.

The flora of heaven corresponded to our thoughts and the fauna to our loves and affections.

Angels in the Clouds

In other words, Heaven was not a place you go to, but something you become (from following God's tenets).

This made sense to me because Jesus claimed that the kingdom of heaven is within us (Luke 17:20).

The only way heaven could be "within" is if it represents our deepest values and life choices.

/The Good Guy, Swedenborgian

Comment: While some traditions see angels as a supernatural class of beings, Swedenborg declares that every angel was once a human being living on earth.

All people on earth have the potential to become angels, regardless of where they are from or what religion they practice.

Swedenborg emphasizes that we are all born for heaven;
if we don't end up there, it is because of the choices that we make in life.

Comment: The Divine Principle does not agree with this Swedenborg view.

Instead confirms the traditional biblical view that Angels were created as spiritual beings (separate from man), and never having any physical body.

”All beings were created by God.

The angels were no exception.

God created the angelic world before anything else.

Genesis 1:26 records the story of creation:

‘Let us make man in our image, after our likeness’, putting the first person in the plural.

He was speaking to the angels, who had been created before man (Gen. 1:26).” /DP Fall of Man Sect. II,1

- What does Divine Principle say!

- There are many records in the Bible of the providence centered on the number "three": the Trinity (Father, Son and Holy Spirit), the three stages in Paradise, the three archangels, (Lucifer, Gabriel and Michael) ...
- Man reaches perfection only after having acquired the ability to rule the rest of creation, including the angels

- Through the spirit man we can communicate directly with God and have dominion over the invisible world, including the angels.

Comment: St Paul said

”Do you not know that we will judge angels?

How much more the things of this life! 1 Cor. 6:3

The position of the True Parents cannot be established without the restoration of the 3 children whom Adam had lost.

That is why Jesus absolutely needed his 3 disciples.

Fall of Angels

When Lucifer sinned, Jesus said, “I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven” (Luke 10:18), and in the book of the Revelation Satan is seen as “a star that had fallen from the sky to the earth” (Revelation 9:1).

We are also told that one third of an “innumerable company of angels” (Hebrews 12:22) chose to rebel with him.

Fall of Angels

John saw this great wonder in heaven, "...an enormous red dragon...His tail swept a third of the stars out of the sky and flung them to the earth...

the great dragon was hurled down — that ancient serpent called the devil, or Satan, who leads the whole world astray.

He was hurled to the earth, and his angels with him" (Revelation 12:3-9).

Fallen Angels

What kind of spiritual being in God's creation could have conversed with people, understood the Will of God, and lived in heaven?

Fallen Angels

What kind of spiritual being in God's creation could have conversed with people, understood the Will of God, and lived in heaven?

What kind of being, even after it had fallen and become degraded to an evil being, could transcend time and space to dominate the human soul?

Fallen Angels

There are no beings endowed with such characteristics other than angels.

Fallen Angels

There are no beings endowed with such characteristics other than angels.

The verse “God did not spare the angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and committed them to pits of nether gloom” supports the conclusion that the serpent, which tempted human beings and sinned, is an angel.

/Divine Principle Ch.2

The 3 archangels were not united in obedience to and attendance of Adam and Eve.

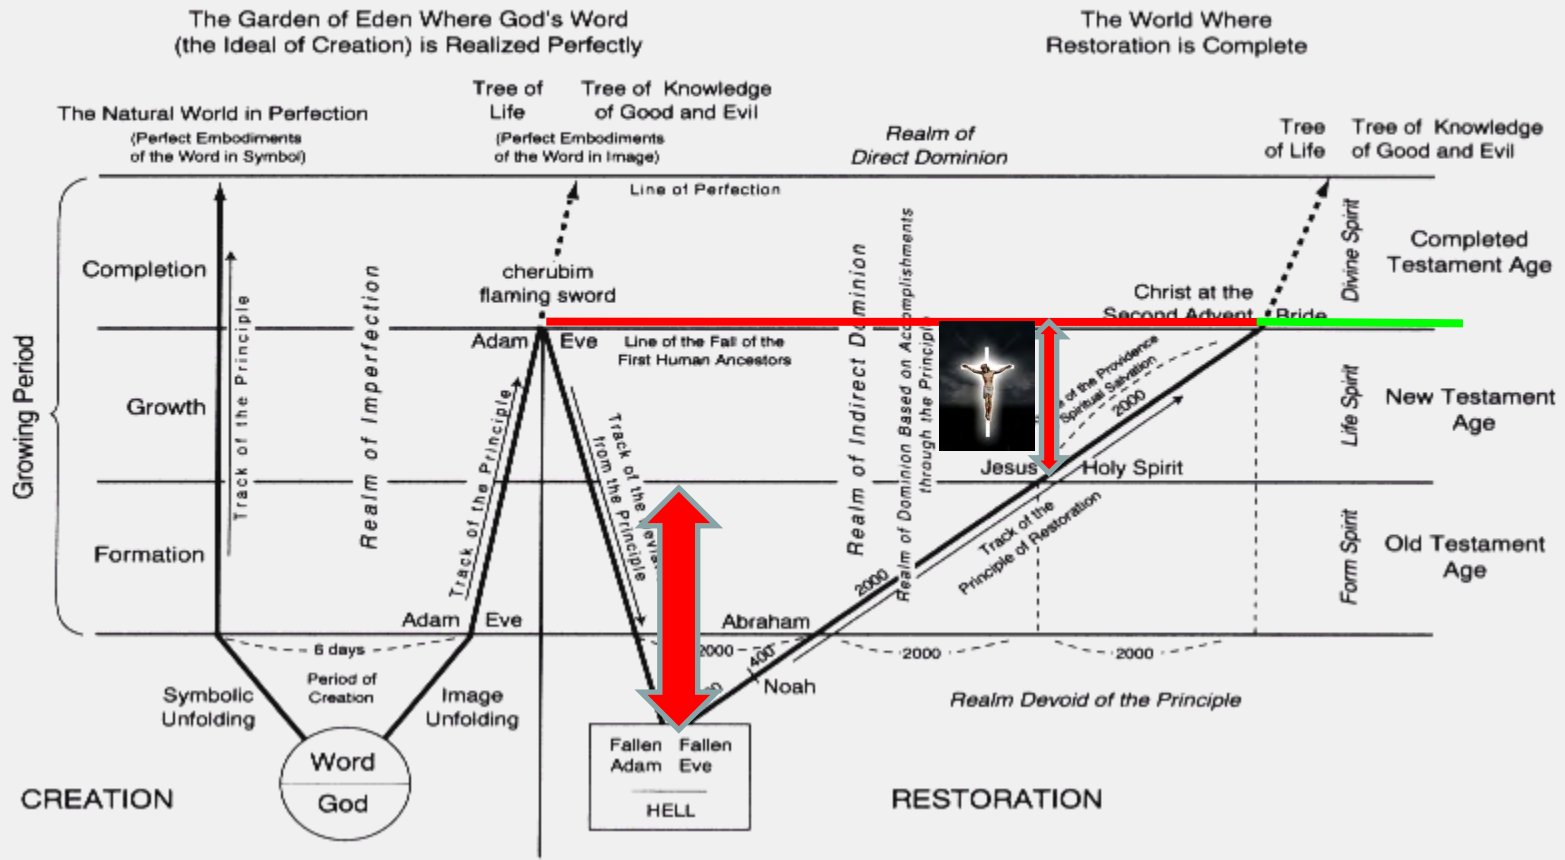

As a result, the world became fallen.

That is why Jesus had to restore 3 disciples in order to stand in the position of the True Parent.

Likewise, the Lord at the Second Advent also must have 3 spiritual children who absolutely obey him. Otherwise, he cannot stand in the position of the True Parent - This is the formula.

and that with the archangel's call and with the sound of the trumpet of God, the dead in Christ will rise first, and those who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air (I Thess. 4:16-17).

- Especially concerning the birth of John the Baptist, all the Jews knew that the angel appeared to testify to his conception (Luke 1:13); and the signs which occurred at the time of his birth stirred all Judea in expectation (Luke 1:63-66)
- Jesus would come upon the throne of David and establish a kingdom that would never perish throughout eternity. Therefore, an angel appeared to Mary at the time she conceived Jesus...

If Jesus had not been crucified, what would have happened? He would have accomplished the providence of salvation both spiritually and physically.

He would have established the Kingdom of Heaven on earth which would last forever, as expressed in the prophecy of Isaiah (Is. 9:6-7), in the instruction of the angel appearing to Mary (Luke 1:31-33), and in Jesus' own words announcing the imminence of the Kingdom of Heaven (Matt. 4:17).

When we read the Bible anew with a knowledge of the Principle, we can understand that, just as the prophet Isaiah foretold in the Old Testament Age (Is. 9, 11, 60), and as the angel of God prophesied to Mary, Jesus was expected to become king of the Jews in his lifetime and establish on earth an everlasting kingdom of which "there will be no end" (Luke 1:31-33).

John was born to a distinguished family as a son of Zechariah, a chief priest (Luke 1:13).

His birth greatly surprised the whole city because of the miracles and signs surrounding his conception.

His father, burning incense in the holy place, saw the angel of the Lord, who announced that his wife would conceive a son.

Upon disbelieving the angel's words, Zechariah was struck dumb, and his speech was restored only upon the birth of the child (Luke 1:9-66).

In what manner evil spirit men can be resurrected through their second coming.

In Matthew 25:41, we read about the cursed, who are liable to the eternal fire prepared for the "devil and his angels".

The "angels" of the devil means the evil spirit men working under the control of the devil.

The spiritual creatures commonly called "ghosts", whose real nature has not been known, are none other than such evil spirit men.

These evil spirits also gain the benefit of the age by descending on earthly men.

Jacob & The Angel

Who must set up the condition of indemnity?
As already clarified in the principle of creation,
man originally was to dominate even the angels, after having perfected himself by fulfilling his own portion of responsibility.

The period for the completion of the providence of restoration after the Second Advent is the period in which the saints, both on earth and in heaven, should complete the providence of restoration by taking the third responsibility of making Satan, the fallen angel, surrender according to the principle of creation that man was made originally to dominate even the angels.

The first act of the fall was that in which she had the relationship with the archangel, who was not her spouse in the Principle, out of the excessive desire to enjoy what it was not yet time for her to enjoy; that is, to become like God, with her eyes opened (Gen. 3:5).

The archangel fell by failing to love Adam, whom God loved more

Next, the archangel fell because he failed to receive God's love through Adam, who was closer to God, as the mediator.

The archangel intended to take Adam's position instead.

Therefore, the fallen nature of not keeping one's position came about.

Consequently, in order to remove this fallen nature, Cain, who was in the position of the archangel, should have taken the position to receive God's love through Abel, who was in the position of Adam, as the mediator, so that he might be able to keep his position.

The archangel conveyed to Eve the will of unrighteousness that the fruit could be taken and eaten, then Eve conveyed this to Adam, thus causing the human fall.

Cain killed Abel, repeating the original fallen nature through which the archangel caused man to fall, and thus Adam's family failed to set up the foundation of substance which was to be established then. Consequently, the providence of restoration centering on Adam's family ended in failure.

By Cain's killing Abel, they fell again into the same state as the archangel and Eve when they fell.

Therefore, the substantial offering was a failure.

What did God foreshadow by sending from the ark a raven (Gen. 8:6-7) which flew about until the water subsided?

This indicated that Satan crouched at the door of Noah's family, even after the flood judgment, to spy on the condition for invasion there, just as the archangel looked for a chance to win Eve's love right after the creation of man and just as Satan watched for the opportunity to invade Cain and Abel when they offered sacrifices (Gen. 4:7).

The archangel took Eve while Adam and Eve were still in the position of brother and sister in their immaturity, thus forcing all created things, as well as their own children, to be under his dominion.

Jacob restored domination substantially over the angel by winning in the struggle with him at the ford of Jabbok, on his way back from Haran to Canaan, the land promised by God.

On his way back form Haran to Canaan Jacob won in the fight with the angel and earned the name "Israel" by setting up the condition of indemnity to restore the dominion over the angel for the first time, as a fallen man, since the fall of the first human ancestors.

Thus he could build the basis for the formation of the chosen nation. (– Israel)

²⁴ Then Jacob was left alone; and a Man wrestled with him until the breaking of day. ²⁵

Now when He saw that He did not prevail against him, He touched the socket of his hip; and the socket of Jacob's hip was out of joint as He wrestled with him.

²⁶ And He said, "Let Me go, for the day breaks."

But he said, "I will not let You go unless You bless me!"

Jacob & The Angel

²⁷ So He said to him, “What is your name?” He said, “Jacob.”

²⁸ And He said, “Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel; for you have struggled with God and with men, and have prevailed.”

²⁹ Then Jacob asked, saying, “Tell me Your name, I pray.” And He said, “Why is it that you ask about My name?”

And He blessed him there.

When his hand was first put into his bosom and it became leprous, this meant that the archangel first put Eve into his bosom and men fell into a position incapable of salvation.

Again the fact that when he put his hand into his bosom the second time it was healed represented that Jesus as the father spirit of mankind would come and restore the Holy Spirit as the mother spirit of mankind .

JESUS

Through the wondrous prediction of the angel concerning the conception of John the Baptist, through the miracle of his father's becoming dumb when he did not believe in this, and through many other miracles which God showed the Israelites at the time of John's birth, they knew from the time of his birth that John was the prophet God had sent to them.

Satan set Jesus on the pinnacle of the temple and said, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down." (Matt. 4:5-6)

Jesus answered him saying, "You shall not tempt the Lord your God." (Matt. 4:7).
Originally angels were created to be dominated by a man of the original state of creation; therefore, a fallen angel (satan) was naturally to be dominated by Jesus. (3 temptations)

JESUS

God intended to establish the Kingdom of God on earth, with His children of direct descent.

However, as discussed in the "Fall of Man", all men, due to the first human ancestor's blood relationship with the archangel Lucifer, have become the children of the devil, inheriting Satan's blood lineage (Matt. 3:7, 23:33, John 8:44).

Thus, the first human ancestors fell into a position in which they were cut off from the lineage of God, and this is the fall.

The spirit world could not function until the appearance of Unification Church. Why?

Because there was no handle to grab; no rapport was established.

There was no love between the races.

3rd Adam

There was no one who could prepare the base so that God could really bring down His hosts of angels. But now the Unification Church represents that base, so God can bring down any number of angels or spirit men He wishes.

3rd Adam

So far, there have been many, many evil spiritual phenomena. There are many evil, lost spirits haunting people.

Spirits can also actually cause diseases and accidents.

What is the difference between evil spirits and good spirits?

When an evil spirit approaches, you somehow feel fearful and uncertain and very unstable.

A satanic spirit is like the winter wind, making you shiver.

3rd Adam

But when some good spirit is trying to embrace you, you feel so good without reason!
You'll be walking on Cloud 9!

A heavenly spirit is like spring. It melts you, relaxes you, and gives you the warmth of love and comfort.

You should feel that in the Unification Church.

3rd Adam

I have been conducting the program of the spirit world for everything.

I do not talk about how heaven is or how heavenly father is, and so forth.

I do not talk about them carelessly.

I only talk about them after I have digested them with the truth and can explain them in some systematic manner.
