6. His Return

When – Where – How

“Men of Galilee,” they said, “why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen him go into heaven.”

The tradition claims he will come down the same way he went up.

But stop and consider:

Why did the Angels scold them...WHY?... do you look into the sky
it would be correct to look into the sky if Jesus was returning that way.

If you expand on the timeframe for the phrase same way being born as a sinless baby, new Adam, grow up proclaim his Second Coming

THAT would be the same way as for Jesus.

Also the Second Coming of Elijah; was an expected return from heaven

When the LORD was about to take Elijah up to heaven in a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal. - 2 Kings

Did it happen that way - NO

The expectation was wrong! – Jewish faith still claims Elijah has not come

Jesus said: And if you will receive it, this (John the Baptist) is Elijah, who was to come.

John was BORN of Sackariah and Elizabeth...
grew up as "Elijah" in power and authority

Many Bible refs., support this view of a Second Coming:

Saint Hildegard of Bingen received 1163
"an extraordinary mystical vision" Liber Divinorum Operum in which was revealed the "sprinkling drops of sweet rain" that John the Evangelist experienced when he wrote,
"In the beginning was the Word..." (John 1:1).

14-15th Cent.

Satan, who seized the physical body of Jesus, God's first-born, continued to hold possession of the earthly world, while God held the heavenly world.

After going to the spirit world, Jesus spent 2,000 years preparing the path.

While he worked in the spirit world to focus the world of the mind on the goal of unification, he was working in the earthly world by establishing the foundation for Christianity.

However, Christianity became divided between Catholicism and Protestantism, which were in the roles of the struggling brothers, Cain and Abel.

These adversaries continue to fight each other today.

Jakob Lorber
1800 – 1864

A Christian mystic and visionary from the Duchy of Styria, who promoted liberal Universalism.

On 15 March 1840 he began hearing an 'inner voice' from the region of his heart and thereafter transcribed what it said.

New Revelation 10,000 pages in print.

The New “Gospel of John” contains 2000 pages claimed directly from Jesus.

Can you imagine a more frustrating experience than the one God had?

Here is God who among all the peoples in the world chose the Jews to become "His own people" because they were the only ones who in the old days had kept the belief in One God.

He made a covenant with them (Abraham), freed them from slavery in Egypt, gave them a unique law, gave them a beautiful land, educated them, blessed them and forgave them their many sins.

But when He finally comes to visit them in human form in Jesus to bring them eternal life they reject Him and kill His body.

Great Gospel of John, book 19, ch. 34, par. 3:

Look, this Jesus of Nazareth, who according to your chronology is born in Bethlehem in the year 4151 after the existence of Adam, and more precisely at midnight on the 7th day
of the month of January, is what concerns His external birth a Jew just like you.

You may know that Jakob Lorber was a 19th century mystic who wrote a books on spiritual subjects by automatic dictation - he heard a Voice, God's voice.

The Moon is in Virgo, therefore disposed by Mercury, which is conjunct with Fomalhaut, one of the 4 most powerful, royal fixed stars, in relation with 1 of the 4 archangels, Gabriel.

"Coincidentally", the angel that announced Mary (the mother = the Moon) that she will have a divine child was actually archangel Gabriel (signified by Mercury, Moon's dispositor, conjunct Fomalhaut).

1897-1961

With her unique gifts of inspiration and literary genius, she is the greatest writer since Saint John the Evangelist. Jesus nicknamed her "Little John". She is the most widely read Italian author in many languages throughout the world.

Nothing is healthier or holier than two people who sincerely love one another and unite to perpetuate the human race and give souls to Heaven.

Helen Schucman, Ph.D., was a clinical and research psychologist.

A Course in Miracles was "scribed" by Dr. Schucman between 1965 and 1972 through a process of inner dictation.

She experienced the process as one of a distinct and clear dictation from an inner voice, which earlier had identified itself to her as Jesus.

Time is under MY (Jesus) direction,
but Timelessness belongs to God alone.
In time, we exist for and with each other.
In Timelessness, we coexist with God.

The Crucifixion did NOT establish the Atonement.
The Resurrection did.
This is a point which many very sincere Christians have misunderstood.

Swedish medium Anna Berg had her spiritual awakening 1994 and have since channeled books from spiritual world about Jesus, Maria and Mary Magdalena.

- After Jesus gave up his body on the cross, he resumed John the Baptist's mission spiritually.

During the forty-day period from his resurrection to his ascension, Jesus triumphed over Satan and broke all his chains.

By doing so, Jesus restored the foundation of faith for the spiritual course in the third worldwide course to restore Canaan.

1. Jesus' Message to Christians and All People on Earth

- I came to Earth with the mission from God to be the Messiah.

In the Bible I could not reveal all of the conflicts between the religious believers and non-believers in those days.

In fact, there are many providential matters that the Bible does not reveal.

Dear Christians and all people on Earth,
please pray over this matter while fasting.
Then I will appear to you and clearly tell you the truth.
When you do it, you should
with a pure heart.

Reverend Sun Myung Moon is the one who came to Earth to complete my mission that was not fulfilled through the redemption of the cross.

He comes as the True Parent to conclude God's providence in the Completed Testament Age.

Reverend Sun Myung Moon is the returning Messiah for whom you have been waiting and waiting.
He inherited my mission at the age of 16.

Dear Christians, are you still looking up and waiting for Christ to return on the clouds?

Reverend Moon travels throughout the world on the clouds.

He is investing all of his heart and soul for the realization of world peace.

Dear fellow Christians, fellow Buddhists, and believers of various religions!

The four great religious founders, Jesus, Buddha, Confucius, and Mohammed, and saints such as Socrates, Augustine and others, have already held this seminar a number of times.

Its theme is always the same: " God is the Parent of All Humankind."

During the seminars, we are always studying the Divine Principle revealed by Reverend Moon.

I have been asked, many times, since I have been over here to tell people, still on the Earth Plane, what I now know about Jesus.

1981

The first and most important thing is to confirm that He is and what He said, during His short time on Earth.

The Son of God, and therefore the Jews made their biggest mistake in having Him put to death.

If he had been allowed to live He would have gone on teaching and in the end, been accepted by all as the Son of God, and the world would have become a better place for it.

But Man has free will and He was put to death and the plans made by God were thwarted.

The time of decision covered only 9 years (a relatily short timeperiod); and resulted in the decision that Christ should return or become visible on Earth as soon as possible, and much earlier that planned.

Christ came to end the Jewish dispensation which should have been the climax and disappeared as a religion with the sun out of Aries and into Pisces.

He therefore presented Himself to them as their Messiah, manifesting through the Jewish race.

Differences

Why did God have to send himself down to earth to become his own son to sacrifice himself to himself just to convince himself to forgive us?

The Divine Principle clearly states:

God and Jesus are 2 entities.

Jesus did not originally come to die but to marry and give the Blessing of Marriages to Mankind.

A new human lineage without Original Sin would have been born.

Christian forgiveness is unable to reach the Original sin, the root of all other sins.

Change of Blood Lineage; The Real Experience of Salvation by the Messiah October 13, 1970--Seoul, Korea

Emphasizing purification of physical blood as a means of completing salvation runs counter to Divine Principle's teaching on the temporal nature of the physical body and permanency of our divine spirit self (DP, p. 46).

When Jesus taught the kingdom of heaven is within man, it is unlikely he was making reference to one's physical blood supply, or any other attribute belonging to the temporal physical body (Luke 17: 20-21).

Bernadette is best known for the Marian apparitions of a "small young lady" who asked for a chapel to be built at the nearby garbage dump of the cave-grotto at Massabielle where apparitions are said to have occurred between 11 February and 16 July 1858.

Despite initial skepticism from the Catholic Church, Soubirous's claims were eventually declared "worthy of belief" after a canonical investigation, and the Marian apparition is now known as Our Lady of Lourdes.

So are we Unificationists Christian?

Both Yes and No!

(according to my personal view)

The point I try to make is that it is misleading to just say we are Christians
They will think traditional traditional Christians.

Yes we in UC do believe in Jesus as the Messiah and in his salvation through His blood.
But that was secondary not primary mission!

Yes we believe in the Bible both Old and New Testament,
BUT NOT THE Classical interpretation about Jesus.

To say we ARE Christian

Would lead people to the wrong conclusion that we believe exactly like Christian faith for 2000 year have done

- That the Fall was just disobedience
- That Jesus came merely to die on the Cross
- That this was Gods will and only plan
- Belief in Jesus and that only Jesus himself will fulfill the Return of Christ

All wrong in DP view.

In order not to mislead we should (in my understanding) say:

- we believe in New Revelation
- based on Old and New Test, like the words of Jesus was continuing revelation and a New Covenant
- the Fall was spiritual and physical sexual to its nature
- the Second Coming is in the flesh, and not only Jesus, who really died physically 2000 yrs ago and lost his physical body.

...so on, see Divine Principle

but that was my point...Kirsti is CORRECT saying we are not Christian or far away from TRADITIONAL Christian teaching
I agree :-)*

For me it was interesting to see how my own faith bounced at Kirstis statements.

*The strongest objection I have, is like I wrote IF...physical intercourse was needed between sinless Messiah...for whatever reason...that would be official, explained in detailed theological terms ...so on.
Its not part of DP at all.*

The opposite, sexual purity is the very core of DP teaching!

Quotes from

Ten Theologians Respond to the Unification Church –
Edited by Herbert Richardson 1981

“The Christ's mission was to restore the broken relationship between man and woman and humans and God by taking a Bride and raising children in a God-centered family.”

From this aspect, the mission of Jesus was incomplete.

Certain Christian critics of Unification theology object that, since Divine Principle teaches that Jesus failed in his mission, Unification "cannot be regarded as Christian,"

*1 Against this objection, two things may be said.

First, Divine Principle does not precisely say that Jesus failed but, rather, that the will of God for the full spiritual and physical restoration of humanity was failed by the disbelief of the people in Jesus (DP, p. 196).

Second, Divine Principle claims that Jesus and the Holy Spirit did fulfill their mission of "spiritual True Parents" (DP p. 217).

It remains the role of the Lord of the Second Advent and his Bride to bring the physical restoration in line with the spiritual restoration already fulfilled by Jesus and the Holy Spirit,

Source:

<http://www.tparents.org/UTS/10T/0-Toc.htm>

It is absolutely wrong for Unification Church members to think that we have nothing to do with Christianity.

Why is that so?

The Old Testament Age and New Testament Age existed in order to restore True Parents.

The Completed Testament Age also exists for the restoration of True Parents.

The content of those three ages is the same: restoration of True Parents. You should have such a concept.

The Messiah is, in fact, True Parents; therefore, the content and the purpose of Judaism, Christianity and the Unification Church are the same.

Then what is different? Judaism wanted to receive the Messiah on a national level, and then to expand it to the whole world. Christianity was formed after Jesus' death in order to receive the Messiah on the worldwide foundation. What about the Completed Testament Age? It is the cosmic level, the time of the desire to receive the True Parents even in the spirit world.

The dimension is different.

You must clearly differentiate them from one another.

Mark 5:1-20

King James Version (KJV)

5 And they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.

² And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

³ Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

⁴ Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

⁵ And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself

⁶ But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him,
⁷ And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God?

I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

⁸ For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.

⁹ And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying,

My name is Legion: for we are many.

¹⁰ And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

¹¹ Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding.

¹² And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

¹³ And forthwith Jesus gave them leave.

And the unclean spirits went out,

and entered into the swine:

and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea,

(they were about two thousand;)

and were choked in the sea.

“When the unclean spirit has gone out of a person, it passes through waterless places seeking rest, and finding none it says,

‘I will return to my house from which I came.’

And when it comes, it finds the house swept and put in order.

Then it goes and brings seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and dwell there.

And the last state of that person is worse than the first.”

3rd Adam

3rd Adam

The spirit world could not function until the appearance of Unification Church. Why?

Because there was no handle to grab;
no rapport was established.

There was no love between the races.

There was no one who could prepare the base so that God could really bring down His hosts of angels.

But now the Unification Church represents that base, so God can bring down any number of angels or spirit men He wishes.

3rd Adam

So far, there have been many, many evil spiritual phenomena. There are many evil, lost spirits haunting people.

Spirits can also actually cause diseases and accidents.

What is the difference between evil spirits and good spirits?

When an evil spirit approaches, you somehow feel fearful and uncertain and very unstable.

A satanic spirit is like the winter wind, making you shiver.

3rd Adam

But when some good spirit is trying to embrace you,
you feel so good without reason!
You'll be walking on Cloud 9!

A heavenly spirit is like spring. It melts you, relaxes you, and gives you the warmth of love and comfort.

You should feel that in the Unification Church.

I have been conducting the program of the spirit world 3rd Adam for everything.

I do not talk about how heaven is or how heavenly father is, and so forth.

I do not talk about them carelessly.

I only talk about them after I have digested them with the truth and can explain them in some systematic manner.

Do you think that I simply listen to the words of some women or grandmothers, or some spiritual medium? No way.

They are ignorant.

They know how to testify to the present, but they do not know how things operate. /SMM (68-276)

DP73:

Malachi prophesied that Elijah, who had ascended into heaven, would come before the advent of the Messiah (Mal. 4:5).

Consequently, the Jewish people of Jesus' day believed that the very person of Elijah who had once ascended into heaven, would come again, and they were looking forward to the day of his coming down from heaven.

But, most unexpectedly, Jesus said that John the Baptist, the son of Zechariah (Luke 1:13), was Elijah (Matt. 11:14).

Here, we came to know, according to the testimony of Jesus himself, that the second advent of Elijah was realized by the birth of John the Baptist, not by his coming down from heaven, as the Jewish people of that time had all expected.

There are scholars who insist that Daniel 7:13 is the prophecy of what was going to happen at the Second Coming of the Lord. However, in the Old Testament Age, God was working His providence to fulfill the whole purpose of the providence of restoration with the coming of the Messiah, as we may clearly see from the words, "For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John." (Matt. 11:13), and also "For Christ is the end of the law, that every one who has faith may be justified." (Rom 10:4).

Therefore, it was the situation that no one could ever imagine the second coming of the Messiah, who had once come, until Jesus himself later said that the Lord would come again.

In this way, even at the time of Jesus' coming, there were many believers who had believed that the Lord would come on the clouds, from Biblical grounds.

However, Jesus was actually born in the flesh on earth, and we are compelled by this knowledge to study the Bible from the viewpoint that the Lord may come again in a like manner.

The symbolic prophecies found in all the world Scriptures anent this imminent event will prove their veracity; their symbolism will nevertheless elicit re-interpretation; circumstances and happenings will not necessarily be exactly as the Scriptures would appear to indicate.

A Bailey :

For instance, He will come indeed in the "clouds of the air" (Matt. XXVI.64), as the Christian Scriptures say, but of what great interest is that when millions come and go in the clouds, each hour of the day and of the night?

I mention this as one of the outstanding prophecies and one of the most familiar; it is, however, one which means little in our modern civilisation.

The fact of importance is that He will come.

1935, is the year Jesus Christ asked SMM to take on his (Jesus) unfinished mission.

p.27

I had a rare and precious experience in which God answered my prayers. That day will always remain as the most cherished memory of my life—a day I can never forget.

It was the night before Easter in the year I turned sixteen (15 wesatern counting).

I was on Mount Myodu praying all night and begging God in tears for answers. Why had He created a world so filled with sorrow and despair?

Why was the all-knowing and all-powerful God leaving the world in such pain? What should I do for my tragic homeland? I wept in tears as I asked these questions repeatedly.

Early Easter morning, after I had spent the entire night in prayer, Jesus appeared before me. He appeared in an instant, like a gust of wind, and said to me, “God is in great sorrow because of the pain of humankind.

You must take on a special mission on earth having to do with Heaven’s work.”

That day, I saw clearly the sorrowful face of Jesus. I heard his voice clearly. The experience of witnessing the manifestation of Jesus caused my body to shake violently, like a quaking aspen’s leaves trembling in a strong breeze.

I was simultaneously overcome with fear so great I felt I might die and gratitude so profound I felt I might explode.

Jesus spoke clearly about the work I would have to do. His words were extraordinary, having to do with saving humanity from its suffering and bringing joy to God.

My initial response was, “I can’t do this. How can I do this? Why would you even give me a mission of such paramount importance?” I was truly afraid. I wanted somehow to avoid this mission, and I clung to the hem of his clothing and wept inconsolably.

Overview of Christianity and Unificationism

by Kevin McArthy

1. The division of Christians along doctrinal, racial and political lines. Jesus revealed that this state of affairs is in direct violation of his vision and prayer as recorded in John 17:21, “That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.”
2. The rise of God-denying ideologies such as Marxism-Leninism and the body-centric life styles void of spiritual values.
3. The decline of the family and moral foundations that underpin it and society.
Especially of concern is the impact on the youth

1. Is the Divine Principle a Christian teaching affirming Jesus Christ as Lord?

The Divine Principle teaching fully affirms the Kerygmatic agenda, the basic affirmations of Christian faith. Christ is the central figure of God's creation and purpose of salvation.

Jesus was born as the sinless Son of God.

He proclaimed God's central dispensation of Salvation.

His shed blood on Calvary's cross atoned for our sin, his resurrection conquered death.

1. Is the Divine Principle a Christian teaching affirming Jesus Christ as Lord?

Contin.

Through Jesus and the Holy Spirit the channel of regeneration was opened to all on the day of Pentecost and He will come again at the end of the age to establish his everlasting Kingdom.

2. Why do we need a “new revelation?”

The Bible never says that God will not speak a specific truth to a specific age with regard to that generation’s unique responsibility.

The Divine Principle revelation is relevant for the people of this age.

It reveals our time as the “End Times” of Biblical renown. It articulates the unique responsibility of our generation to fulfill the mandate of this age.

3. How do Unificationists view God?

When Jesus revealed God's identity as he prayed, "Our Father. . .who art in heaven. . . not only did Jesus reveal the true nature of God, but also revealed that the true nature of our relationship with God was to be the relationship of parent and child.

Thus, the heart of God is that of a parent and, in view of the reality of the human fall, God is grieving over the loss of his very own (Genesis 6:5-6).

Like "the good shepherd" God, since the fall of humanity into sin, has been seeking the recovery of his lost family.

4. What is the Divine Principle teaching on sin?

The Divine Principle defines sin as a condition of thought or action, in violation of the Word of God, that makes a base for satan to exert sovereignty over the sinner.

Sins fall into one of four categories:

1. personal (sins committed by the individual)
2. collective (sins committed by a group, such as God revealed to Gideon)
3. ancestral (sins committed by family line).

The most significant of all categories of sin, however, is,

4. original (the sin committed by the first human ancestors.)

4. What is the Divine Principle teaching on sin?

Contin.

The reality of original sin and its consequences necessitates the dynamics of salvation: a new living Adam (Christ) unto whom we can graft and thereby escape the vestiges of sin.

5. How do Unificationists view the cross?

The Divine Principle affirms the way of the cross as the pre-planned, pre-destined dispensation of God through which sin was atoned.

Satan exercised his maximum power to crucify Jesus, when “he entered the mind of Judas” who then betrayed the Christ, and, thereby attained the goal Satan had sought throughout the four-thousand-year course of history.

5. How do Unificationists view the cross?

Contin.

On the other hand, by delivering Jesus to satan, God set up as compensation the condition to save sinful humanity.

How did God achieve this? Because satan had already exercised his maximum power in killing Jesus, God was then entitled, according to the principle of atonement by blood, to exercise His maximum power to bring Christ back to life.

5. How do Unificationists view the cross?

Contin.

While satan uses his power to kill, God uses His power to bring the dead to life. As compensation for satan's exercise of his maximum power in killing Jesus, God exercised His maximum power and resurrected Jesus.

Thus, through the shed blood of Christ, God opened the way for all humanity to be engrafted with the resurrected Jesus and thereby receive salvation and rebirth.

6. How do Unificationists view the Resurrection of Jesus?

The Divine Principle teaching fully affirms the resurrection of Christ as having conquered death. Paul's adamant assertions of I Corinthians 15:14 "And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain," rightfully places the resurrecting power of God as the citadel of our faith.

6. How do Unificationists view the Resurrection of Jesus?

Contin.

Misunderstanding sometimes arises in the Divine Principle's effort to make a distinction between the miracle of corporeal resurrection as exemplified by 1 Kings 17:21-22 when Elijah revives a dead child and the resurrection exclusive to Christ as exemplified in John 5:24. The motive in the attempt to make a distinction is to clarify and magnify the ultimate value of relationship with Christ as the sole benefactor of eternal life.

7. How do Unificationists view the Second Coming Christ?

The Divine Principle attempts to examine God's motive and purpose for creating and in what manner that ideal was postponed by the human fall. It further clarifies the purpose of Christ as central within the context of God's original purpose of creation. That is, the goal of the history of salvation is culminated by Christ in the role of True Parents, eradicating evil and establishing the Kingdom of Heaven under the uncontested sovereignty of God.

Thus, the prayer at the garden of Gethsemane will never end.

Throughout endless ages and centuries, this heartbreaking and blood-stained voice of the final plea should always stay alive in the human heart.

God is working hard, hoping for a day when your heart will resonate with the heart of Jesus, who cried out, "My God."

The believers in the last days should inherit the historical and grave heart of Jesus as he prayed on Mount Calvary and in the garden of Gethsemane. They should awaken the Christians who are in the position of the three disciples sleeping in the garden of Gethsemane. We should know that such an age is approaching.

With the same heart as Jesus,
who prayed in the garden of Gethsemane,
"My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me," (Matthew 26:39)

you should also pray,

"Father, if possible, do not let our Messiah be taken to the cross."

THE DA VINCI CODE

The Da Vinci Code and Divine Principle,
highlighting points of contact in seven areas:

1. The Use of Allegory and Symbol
2. The Sacred Feminine
3. Creation
4. Christ
5. Human sexuality
6. The Church
7. Eschatology, or Last Things

Both texts maintain that much of Christ's "true history" is conveyed through allegory and symbol.

The Da Vinci Code attempts to extract truth as to Christ's true history from Da Vinci's paintings and the Holy Grail legend by reinterpreting their core symbols.

DP extracts clues as to Christ's true history by reinterpreting symbols in the Bible.

Though working with different sets of materials, both texts employ similar methods of interpretation and arrive at similar conclusions, as will be shown.

1. Allegory and Symbol

The basic premise of The Da Vinci Code, and codes in general, is that hidden meanings exist within familiar settings.

Thus, Brown links several of his core assertions to symbols embedded within famous paintings by Leonardo Da Vinci, notably the Mona Lisa and The Last Supper.

2. The Sacred Feminine

Recovery of the sacred feminine is important for both The Da Vinci Code and Divine Principle.

The Da Vinci Code's references ancient Goddess worship rooted in "pagan, Mother Earth-revering religions."

DP's reference point is the Christian doctrine of the Holy Spirit, which it reinterprets in feminine terms.

Nevertheless, both texts agree that Christianity either directly or indirectly suppressed the sacred feminine.

3. Creation

For both The Da Vinci Code and Divine Principle, creation is a gateway to the divine.

Both texts develop arguments in favor of intelligent design, reflective of the divine order in nature.

Brown identifies a code, known as the “Divine Proportion,” embedded not only in Da Vinci’s works, but also in the fabric of creation.

DP likewise contends that the natural order mirrors the divine and cites Biblical revelation as support.

4. Christ

Both The Da Vinci Code and Divine Principle attempt to deconstruct two millennia of interpretation as to the “true history of Jesus Christ.”

They reinterpret the divinity and humanity of Christ in convergent ways. With some qualifications, The Da Vinci Code considers Jesus to be a “mortal prophet”, “married man”, “father”, and originator of a “royal bloodline.”

4. Christ contin.

DP attempts to be more even-handed in reconciling conflicting claims as to Christ's divinity and humanity but similarly associates Jesus with marriage.

In so doing, it contends there were "dual prophecies" as to Christ's coming as "Lord of Glory" which would have included the elements of marriage and lineage or "Lord of Suffering" which, which, in fact, led to his crucifixion and atoning sacrifice.

5. Human Sexuality

In addition to the sacred feminine, both The Da Vinci Code and Unification theology attempt to restore the sacredness of human sexuality.

Again taking his lead from Da Vinci, Dan Brown discusses, in relatively explicit terms, “The once hallowed act of hieros gamos—the natural sexual union between man and woman through which each became spiritually whole.”

5. Human Sexuality contin.

Unification theology also attempts to sanctify human sexuality, or what it terms “absolute sex.”

In several of his speeches, Rev. Moon refers to the sexual organs as the “palace of love” and God’s “dwelling place.”

6. The Church

Although The Da Vinci Code and DP both criticize institutional Christianity, Brown's novel is significantly more anti-clerical.

The Da Vinci Code adheres to a more materialist reading of scripture, regarding it as “a product of man... Not of God.”

DP, though not holding the Bible to be “perfect and absolute in itself,” acknowledges it to be “a revelation from God.”

7. Eschatology, or Last Things

Neither The Da Vinci Code nor DP view the end times as a cataclysmic scenario, characterized by supernaturally-induced natural disasters.

Both texts instead view the end time as a period of historical transition.

The Da Vinci Code and Divine Principle

Is Jesus God

On the grounds of all these Biblical verses, many Christians have hitherto believed that Jesus is God Himself, the Creator.

As demonstrated above, Jesus, as a man having fulfilled the purpose of creation, is one body with God.

So, in light of his deity, he may well be called God. Nevertheless, he can by no means be God Himself.

The relationship between God and Jesus can be compared to that between the mind and body.

The body, as the substantial object which resembles the mind, is one body with the mind, so it may be called a second mind (image of the mind), but the body can by no means be the mind itself.

In like manner, Jesus, being one body with God, may be called a second God (image of God), but he can by no means be God Himself.

It is true that he who has seen Jesus has seen God (John 14:9-10); but Jesus did not say this to indicate that he was God Himself.

It is written (John 1:14) that Jesus is the Word made flesh.

This means that Jesus is the substantiation of the Word;
that is, the incarnation of the Word.

Then, it is written (John 1:3) that all things were made through the Word, and again (John 1:10), that the world was made through Jesus; naturally, Jesus may be called the Creator.

According to the principle of creation, the world of creation is the substantial development of the character and form of a man of perfected individuality.

So, a man who has fulfilled the purpose of creation is the substantial encapsulation of the entire cosmos, and the center of harmony in the whole creation.

In that sense, it may also be said that the world was created by a man of perfection.

God intended to have man,
after his perfection through the fulfillment of his own portion of responsibility,
stand in the position of the creator over all things,
by giving him even His own creative nature.

Seen from this perspective, we can understand that the Bible (John 1:10) only clarifies the fact that Jesus was a man who had perfected the purpose of creation, and does not signify that he was the Creator Himself.

Jesus was a descendant of Abraham; but since he came as the human ancestor giving rebirth to all mankind, he would become the forefather of Abraham, in light of the providence of restoration.

This is why Jesus said (John 8:58), "... before Abraham was, I am."

We must understand that this also does not signify that Jesus was God Himself.

Jesus, on earth, was a man no different from us except for the fact that he was without original sin.

Even in the spirit world after his resurrection,
he lives as a spirit man with his disciples.

The only difference between them is that Jesus abides as a spirit man of the divine spirit stage, emitting brilliant light, while his disciples are the objects who reflect this light.

Meanwhile, Jesus has been interceding for us before God even in the spirit world after his resurrection (Rom. 8:34), just as he did on earth. If Jesus is God Himself, how could he intercede for us before Himself?

Comment:

"For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus" 1 Tim. 2:5

Mediator is between 2 parties.

Like Jesus mediates for man between God and satan.

You can not mediate if you are God.

That's like being both defender and Judge in the court

Moreover, we see that Jesus also called upon "God" or "Father" for help, which is good evidence that he is not God Himself (Matt. 27:46, John 17:1)

If Jesus was God Himself, how could God have been tempted by Satan, and finally crucified by the evil force?

Furthermore, when we find that Jesus said on the cross, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" it becomes clear that Jesus is not God Himself.

The Jesus of Galilee will not return - it is not necessary.

The Christ who manifested through him is the Eternal – he will manifest again (New Adam).

Mr. Moon in deep meditation can project himself and be seen just as Jesus has been able to project himself and be seen by the saints.

This is one of the marks - of the messiahs always.

This is the end of an age, and the battle that is raging is really Armageddon.

It's a battle between the selfish, brutal men who do not think in terms of God or things which are associated with that word - against those peoples who will be the harbingers of the New Age.

You are now in the new Age - and old things are being destroyed - and new things - which are eternal but which are new only because mankind has now reached the point where it is able to recognize them and use them.

'From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and violent men take it by force. /Mathew 11:12

The revelators seldom live to see their revelations widely accepted. But they do always draw to them – and leave behind them – a group who continue the revelation.

But it is not likely that everyone will accept it, because it needs education and it will take time.

Nobody can give away perfection.

Perfection was the ideal, and perfection was mans goal from the beginning, but man choose himself to loose that perfection, and she must now choose to return to it.

Mr. Moon reminded me that in the Book of Revelation there is a picture of the New Jerusalem, the Holy City, coming down out of the heavens. And there was a door on the east and a door on the south, a door on the north and a door on the west – and when the teacher comes, he always has to come through the eastern gate. In the Holy City of Jerusalem there is an eastern gate long since sealed and blocked. It will never be opened until the new teacher comes.

The Hebrew name of the Golden Gate is Sha'ar HaRachamim (שער הרחמים), Gate of Mercy. In Jewish sources the eastern gate of the Temple compound is called the Shushan Gate. If the Golden Gate does preserve the location of the Shushan Gate, which is only a presumption with no archaeological proof, this would make it the oldest of the current gates in Jerusalem's Old City Walls.

I can only repeat the vision of John, that when the New Age comes, the Eastern Gate will open, and not only man - but Revelation (and Messianic HEALING as at the time of Jesus) – will flow out of that gate. /Ford-Fletcher

According to Jewish tradition, the Shekhinah (כינה) (Divine Presence) used to appear through the eastern Gate, and will appear again when the Anointed One (Messiah) comes (Ezekiel 44:1–3)

Comment :

Divine Principle claims Messiah comes from the East, Korea!

But you cannot expect the message to be accepted immediately by vast numbers of people only those who are ready and who are willing to listen and to whom this particular message seems to be right and meaningful.

That is the way that all the world teachers have had to go.

And remember one thing only, that if it is of God, it can not fail. And it is of God.

More Words by Sun Myung Moon

Originally, Jesus was to start a seven-year course, from the age of 33, establish a standard of parenthood according to Heaven's desire, and then erect the standard for restoring all things.

He was to have completed everything by the age of 40 and fulfill the Will of Heaven.

This was the mission of Jesus.

However, he was prevented from fulfilling this Will, and he died on the cross. (Original Sinless seed was lost)

Thus, this Will was left unfulfilled.

The Unification Church was established in the seventh year counting from 1948;
that period had the significance of indemnifying the Old Testament Age.

1954-1960

So, on the foundation of these seven years, humankind could enter the New Testament Age for the first time.

“That's why I established the Unification Church on this new foundation, before 1960.

The period until 1960 indemnified the failure of Christianity.

You have to know that I had to go through courses representative of all the suffering courses in God's will in the Old and the New Testaments because of this.

I had to lay the foundation, indemnifying not only everything the Israelites had failed to do and everything the Christians had failed to do but also everything that had Jesus failed to do. /SMM

Judaism, the Israel nation and those surrounding Jesus circumstances totally disintegrated, and they dispersed with no unifying element.

Then Jesus and his family became exposed to a great deal of menace and danger. Because of that a lot of indemnity had to be paid.

Since Jesus body was lost, a great deal of indemnity had to be paid throughout the 2,000 year Christian history.

It is a history of martyrdom, pain and indemnity for the sake of Jesus' lost body.

In a way, Christian history is nothing more than a history of paying indemnity for the sake of Jesus.

Because Jesus lost his body, Christianity has been steadily paying the price for 2,000 years.

Thus Christianity can be known as the religion of indemnity.

Q: How about Hebr 9:22

And according to the law almost all things are purified with blood, and without shedding of blood there is no remission.

A: I understand clearly your point - crystal clear :-) Still I disagree - strongly. ;-)

You like to put things in the proper time frame - Good

So here is the time frame for Hebrew 9

2017

Saul could NOT see the light of Jesus in the beginning.
After Jesus death and meeting the spiritual and resurrected
Jesus on the rode to Damascus... things changed dramatically.

Paul must then have relied on oral facts about Jesus life:
Jesus was born he preached/healed forgave sins and fulfilled Scripture and died - resurrected - FACTS!

Pauls hindsight thinking to the Hebrews was colored by this.
Since Jesus the Messiah died (fact) rejected by most of the people (again fact)...

Pauls logical conclusion then became:

Jesus came to die for our sins - riding on the OT words without shedding of blood there is no remission.

In that frame the Hebrew 9 makes sense.

BUT Jesus came with a New Covenant based on his sinless body -

he was NOT bound by the Old Test. -

O.T. only applies to UN-Holy Fallen Sinful unpure mans need for sacrificing something without Sin - animals blood.

My comment about 1 Tim 2:5

For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

1 +1 +1 = 3 beings...one two three :-) - you don't mediate with yourself

1 God; Divine eternal Spiritual being - with no physical body (needed Jesus body for incarnation)

1 Jesus; Divine Spirit and BODIES;

-1 Physical sinless biologically decayable;
started as egg+sperm in Marys womb

- 1 Eternal Divine BODY

as seen on the Mount of Transfiguration;

seen after Resurrection;

seen by Paul and many Christians throughout 2000 years.

1 (many men) human fallen beings - with 2 BODIES.

Like Jesus but infused with Sin from the Fall

2017

Interestingly it now comes to my mind;
IF Jesus is God ...and WAS before Abraham
WHY DID NO OLD TESTAMENT PROPHET TESTIFY
AS HAVING MET WITH THAT JESUS – God Creator!

My crystal clear answer: the being before Abraham is CHRISTOS; the perfect ideal human being that was CREATED/STARTED in the womb of Mary.

The ideal of Sinless Man existed from the beginning - before Abraham I (Sinless Human)
WAS (as goal and concept)
not the Jesus of Bethlehem that indeed
DID fulfill that Divine role 2000 years ago.

Summary: According to Divine Principle;

Jesus came primarily to be accepted have a family and once and for all Remove Original Sin from Mankind.

Jesus would have done that by marrying John the Baptist younger sister, and become True Parents together with her. (New 2nd Adam and 2nd Eve)

Jesus was sadly rejected as the Messiah by most of the people at that time; crucified. (Elijah seemed to be lacking)

The Cross and Resurrection means Spiritual Salvation.
Physical Salvation will be achieved at the Second Coming.

The Father of Jesus was Zachariah
(together with Gods Holy Spirit present)
