

Inside the Politics of FFWPU in Korea and Chung Pyung

Hello Brothers and Sisters,

This may help solve the puzzle you are solving regarding the recent issues about FFWPU.

From 2005-2007 i had a chance to live and work inside Chung Pyung as translator of CSG to Filipino language. At that time i have learned that there are three groups in the FFWPU who are competing for positions and recognition from True Father. These groups have their own network to lure members to their sides. And these three groups have their own candidate for the heir of True Father as the next king. These groups are Rev. Kwak's group, the Chung Pyung Group headed by Mrs. Hyo Nam Kim and the third group is Rev. Hwang's group.

These three groups are supposed to be the disciples for propagating God's Will as what True Father says it. However, what i saw is that they are competing against each other for True Father's approval of their own ideas or projects or candidates for certain position for their own purposes.

Their main goal is for their candidate for heir of True Father to be crowned as the next king.

As you know Rev. Kwak is pushing through to make Hyun Jin Nim as the heir of True Father. So they spread words that Hyun Jin Nim is the eldest son at this time, so he should be the heir. They tried to push this idea using korean tradition wherein the eldest son receives the inheritance of parents position and wealth.

The next group is the Chung Pyung group. They had a plan to make one brother of Mrs. Kim Hyo Nam to become legal kin of Mother. If this happened then the Chung Pyung group can make him the heir, when Mother becomes disfunctional. However this did not worked well. I heard the nurses at the hospital did not unite with this project so they cannot make that brother Mother's kin/brother legally.

When the idea about the Only Begotten Daugther, that Mother is sinless and Father is sinful came out the Chung Pyung group bought this idea. However after August 30, when Elder Victorious Cain Kook Jin Nim crowned his younger brother Victorious Abel as the heir of True Father and the second King of Cheon Il Guk, Mrs. Kim's group changed their ideology. Mrs. Kim's spiritual father and spiritual grandfather who were giving lecture that Mother is the Only Begotten Daugther, and sinless started to declare otherwise. They said Mother is sinful. They also announced that Yoksa in Chung Pyung has stopped because only Mrs. Hyo Nam Kim was given the authority to do that by True Father.

Now the group of Mrs. Hyo Nam Kim is trying to make their own group in Japan telling japanese members to join them because Mrs. Hyo Nam Kim is the only one who can do liberation and blessing of ancestors.

The third group is Rev. Sun Jo Hwang's group. This group's candidate for heir is one of the sons of Hyo Jin Nim. I think they got this idea from the fact that Hyo Jin Nim is the eldest son born of the True Parents.

During that time i was in Chung Pyung, i did not understand why the group of Rev. Hwang has serious interest in the teachings and activities of Nakayama. One of his beloved supporter had ask me about the Nakayama group of which i knew that they have declared their woman leader as Mother God. I myself saw that video wherein they had gloriously prepared the stage in Cuneta Astrodone in Manila Philippines to proclaim nakayama's woman leader being God.

So Rev. Hwang's group was very interested in that event. I did not know why. But later i heard from Rev. Hyung Jin Moon that the FFWPU is teaching about the Only Begotten Daugther and that Mother is sinless and that Father was the one who fell with satan and that Father is sinful because he has the 6 Marys.

Since there is only three groups who has been competing against each other to rule over the whole FFWPU after Father goes to the spirit world, let us try to look who could have been teaching such thing as those mentioned above. And what group will finally support the idea that Mother is the female God.

Rev. Kwak's group wants Hyun Jin Nim to become the heir. They did this by getting as much FFWPU properties and organizations as they can get to their names. Their view is that those properties are owned by members so members should enjoy them. They lure members by helping them financially using the huge amount of money and properties they got from FFWPU. Their purpose is to have enough base and support to proclaim Hyun Jin Nim as the true heir of True Father.

Rev. Kkwak's group cannot teach about the Only Begotten Daughter idea because they ultimately want Hyun Jin Nim to be the messiah, the fourth Adam. Do you remember? Around 2008 I had been hearing this whisper from few of my friends and some Korean acquaintances.

Mrs. Hyo Nam Kim used her spiritual power to heal members through Chung Pyung to lure members into their network. Of course she has spiritual power but it is not from her origin. That spiritual power originated from God and True Father who gave her permission to do that providential work. As they did that work they got so much donations from the worldwide membership and created their own network among members and in the society. Their purpose is to have a base so when the brother, whom they wanted to make Mother's legal brother, become officially and legally a brother of Mother, they can also make him Father's heir when Mother becomes dysfunctional.

However this did not work well for them. Now they are luring Japanese members to continue believe in Mrs. Hyo Nam Kim as the bonafide spiritualist of FFWPU who can liberate and bless our ancestors. When spiritualists disunited with the one who gave them spiritual power, they usually go back to where they started, no more special spiritual power to help God's children.

At first Mrs. Hyo Nam Kim united with the Only Begotten Daughter idea but after August 30, 2015 they changed their view and started their campaign in Japan.

So the group of Mrs. Hyo Nam Kim cannot teach the Only Begotten Daughter idea because they already disregarded that after August 30 this year.

Now it is only one group who could possibly be the strong supporter of the Only Begotten Daughter idea. It is Rev. Hwang's group and the network he has mastered while he is at a high position.

I personally knew that his group is very interested in the Nakayama group. And after thinking about what happened on the January 13 Foundation, I see it as very similar to the Nakayama group when they proclaimed their woman leader as God in the Philippines.

So the only one who can teach that Mother is sinless, that Mother is the Only Begotten Daughter is the group of Rev. Hwang. Who else do you think? I do not know of another group inside the FFWPU who is willing to teach this to our brothers and sisters. It could only be the group of Rev. Hwang.

Their purpose is to make Mother the absolute authority so she can easily change or erase what Father has proclaimed and what Father has done throughout his life. If they can make Mother the absolute authority, even higher than God and Father as presented in their new trinity (God and Father are inside Mother), then Mother Han can easily change the heir.

So Rev. Hwang's group who does not have enough money left, since Rev. Kwak and Mrs. Kim, has gotten a lot of their names or relative's names, has to use anything left to make Mother go to that image, the OBD, the Messiah and finally they will proclaim her as God. Mother is also uniting with this group so she also tell herself as the Only Begotten Daughter and the Messiah on her Oct. 24 speech.

So Brothers and Sisters, all of these three groups, who are supposed to totally unite with True Father had been doing their own things. They are supposed to be True Father's main disciples but could not carry out that mission successfully.

Please pray sincerely about your decisions. Will you go to one of these groups? Or will you go to the heir that True Parents proclaimed and crowned three times?

Please please pray deeply and sincerely. God does not force anybody. You need to seek, knock and ask and the answers shall be given unto you. Aju.

May God bless you more and more.
