Dear WFWP Members,

We wanted to share with you how your donations have created an impact in the lives of the refugee children in Jordan.

During the summer, the WFWP center at Russeifa, a city in Zarqa, Jordan has created a drama team and made available different music instruments for these students. A small group of 5 boys is scheduled to perform a drama at the Sukhneh center, Jeeza center and Jerash Suf center in front of an audience of 100 other children. The teachers along with these children are working extremely hard for the success of this event.

The teachers expressing gratitude to the WFWP members, said, “Thank you to all the kind hearts for sharing their bounty with these children. Thank you very much.”

The teachers have also designed some creative strategies to invoke interest in these children towards learning through arts and crafts. The girls are very crafty and are happy to use their skills for creatively designing new stuff. The teachers, Ms. Israa and Mr. Iman are working very hard in helping these girls get sophisticated in designing new stuff creatively.

Thank you very much for bringing fun to the grim lives of these children.

The students enrolled at CDC centers continue to visit the center for studying despite the unbearable heat and bad weather as they are keen on using music instruments. These innocent children and the super tenacious teachers are making lots of effort in making the education possible. Thank you very much!

Many excellent young ladies have shown interest in serving the centers as volunteers. They are excellent in character, incredibly kind and well-versed in the know-how of teaching. Thank you very much for helping us pay a small income to these volunteers for their efforts.

We as one team are employing all our mental faculties to make the best use of your donations to help these vulnerable children. Thank you for believing in this program and giving these children a chance at what they deserve: a good future.

Sincerely,
Fusayo Irikura
