Fall Quarter: What Is a True Spiritual Family?

At a time when there seems to be endless reasons to stand divided on issues, principles, and ideas, what is it that we can all agree on? We all want to be a part of one family under God. If that's true, then what does that look like in a smaller setting? We will be answering the question of 'What is a True Spiritual Family?' in the Fall season at New Hope. There will be great testimonies, lively conversations, and a whole lot of God's hands working to bring us closer together.
