

Manhattan Family Church: In Loving Memory of Lisa Muller

Francis Marsal
June 9, 2026

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Lisa Hyang-Ae Muller, daughter of John & Kumiko Muller, and loving sister of Christine Muller ascended suddenly and unexpectedly this past Sunday, June 7th at just 31 years of age. Following a highly stressful situation, she was hospitalized and tragically taken far too soon, with so much of her life still ahead of her.

The Muller family is currently raising funds to help cover the costs of the Seonghwa ceremony. Any contribution would be greatly appreciated.

We would also appreciate the community to come together in prayer to support the family in this challenging time.

More information regarding the details of the Seonghwa ceremony will be shared in the coming days.

Chain Prayer

Those who are able are invited to join the chain prayer. Those participating, please offer prayer and devotions for 1 full hour with HDH, singing Holy songs, etc.

Honoring Lisa Muller's Memory

Christine Muller

Donation protected

My family is devastated by the sudden and unexpected passing of the daughter of John & Kumiko Muller, my younger sister Lisa Muller, at just 31 years of age. Following a highly stressful situation, she was hospitalized and tragically taken from us far too soon, with so much of her life still ahead of her. As we navigate this unimaginable grief, our family is in need of financial support from the community to cover the costs of her Seonghwa ceremony. We want to honor her life and memory with this beautiful, sacred transition. We are deeply grateful for your prayers and support. With love, The Muller Family
