FFWPU-UK National Newsletter

ISSUE 25.04.26

This week's newsletter is centred on the spirit of blessing, family and preparation for the upcoming Holy Day, with highlights from the recent Blessing event, opportunities to serve at the Annual Gathering, nominations for the Grace Miller Award and many other community notices.

We hope these updates inspire and encourage you in the week ahead!

National Directors' Message

Dear brothers and sisters, members and friends of FFWPU-UK,

It was just one year ago (on April 12, 2025) that 10 couples connected to our UK community received the Blessing. On that day, ten exciting new family journeys, ten unique home cultures, ten global relationships, ten new ways to love, live, learn and grow together were planted in this country and in our Heavenly Parent's heart.

Next week (May 2/3), we will celebrate in our homes and communities the 66th Anniversary of True Parents' Holy Wedding, the origin of all blessed families, our community and as True Mother recently emphasised, a new "chosen people."

As we prepare for this Holy Day, we can look into our partner, parents, or children's eyes and sense freshly what it means to "be chosen" – yesterday, today, and tomorrow – to create a blessed family, love people and build God's Kingdom on Earth as it is in Heaven.

Also, this year, on May 2, couples from the United Kingdom will receive the Holy Marriage Blessing in Korea. Let us pray for them today and in the weeks to come. Others already received the Blessing during the interfaith blessing ceremony at Lancaster Gate featured in this newsletter.

We wish you a blessed week and meaningful holiday preparations,
Bogdan & Yoshiko

PS: You can still register for the Spring Special Great Works until April 26. See the previous newsletter for the details.

Celebration Of Marriage, Family And Faith

This past weekend, a Celebration of Marriage, Family and Faith was co-hosted by FFWPU-UK and UPF, bringing together families, couples, and guests for an afternoon focused on the value of marriage and family life.

The event began with a shared lunch, offering a relaxed space for fellowship and conversation. This was followed by a programme that combined reflection, testimony, and celebration. An invocation was given by Ms Datta Shah of the Jain community, setting the tone for an interfaith and inclusive gathering.

Rev. Dr David Hanna delivered a presentation titled "A Blessing to the World," exploring how marriage is honoured across cultures and why strong families remain essential for building peaceful communities. His message connected both the spiritual and practical dimensions of family life.

A central part of the programme was the Interfaith Blessing Ceremony, officiated by Rev. William and Ruth Haines, with support from Dr David and Patricia Earle. This offered participants an opportunity to reflect on and renew their commitment to their relationships and families.

The afternoon also included a musical performance by Mrs Julie Dyer and the presentation of Exemplary Family Awards. Reflections shared by award recipients and attendees added a personal and meaningful dimension to the event.

Overall, the gathering provided a space for both celebration and thoughtful engagement, highlighting the continued importance of marriage and family within our wider community.
