

CARP USA: Seeing students grow up before your eyes - CARP on Giving Tuesday

Teresa Rischl
November 26, 2019

Discover Mia's Transformation This Year

Last year, Mia was an enthusiastic and optimistic freshman on campus at the College of Southern Nevada. As a new student wanting to make a difference, she was curious, asked questions, and helped wherever she was needed. Her spirit of service was recognized by the National CARP organization with the 'Unsung Hero Award' for the Fall 2018 semester.

Since then, this young woman has blossomed. From the nurturing environment and opportunities made available to her through her involvement with CARP, Mia, now a sophomore,

- Hosted a large campus event with her peers this month ("Campus Talk"),
- Had the experience of attending two national conferences as a student (hosted by the Love & Fidelity Network and the National Center on Sexual Exploitation 'NCOSE'), and
- Took on the chapter President role on her campus at College of S. Nevada!

"It has been an incredibly empowering experience."

Becoming the President was a daunting role to take on. I felt that the people before me had left such huge shoes to fill. I had no idea what to anticipate. It has been a whirlwind of understanding myself and what I am capable of and I think that really is a huge lesson on leadership.

*Being a leader isn't about knowing everything and being 100% capable, but realizing what you ARE capable of. I had no idea I could accomplish any of this...but I felt that taking on this role has pushed me to see that I have a capacity to give in a way I didn't think I could before.

It's a precious learning experience and there's still so much to learn from all of it. I'm incredibly grateful for everyone around me who believed in me and trusted me enough to take this on.

We are so proud of you, Mia!

Because of donors' support and donations, Mia and other students like her, were able to accomplish so much this past year, thanks to the opportunities and training provided to them through workshops, resources, marketing materials, and more.

Mia and students like her need YOUR help to make sure these opportunities continue in the coming year. How will Mia grow in this next year and expand her impact on those around her? The only way to find out what she is capable of, is to invest in her future.

Support Mia's Growth in 2020

Here's how you can contribute:

1. Give online at carplife.org/donate
2. Make out checks to 'NCARP' and send them to NCARP, 481 8th Ave #A6, New York, NY 10001
3. When you shop on Amazon, shop through smile.amazon.com and pick 'National Collegiate Association for the Research of Principles, Inc' as the charity - we will receive a portion of your shopping proceeds. It's an easy way to give!

#GIVINGTUESDAY

Join our End-of-Year Campaign from now until the end of 2019, especially on Giving Tuesday, December 3rd!

Thank you for your support in raising the next generation of principled leaders like Mia!

With gratitude,

Teresa Rischl

National CARP President

Empower Students to Shine on Campus

Donate

Help Students BE THE LIGHT that Shines on Campus...

School today is not what it used to be. Students experience pressure on all sides: academics, peers, family, society, etc. It's easy to get lost in the crowd, to not stand for the principles that matter. But principles, like "Live for the Sake of Others," DO matter. It matters that we think beyond our own self-interests. For students like Marcus, it's made all the difference in his growth, health, and outlook on life. Help more students like Marcus experience hope, freedom, and clarity.

Your donation sponsors CARP chapter support to empower students to BE THE LIGHT, in an often "gray," relativistic world. Your donations provide tools and trainings to students to articulate their principles in life so they can make a positive impact any place they go: at school, at home, with their families, at work, etc. Your investment in young people is an investment in the future.

Help students to BE THE LIGHT on college campuses - where ideas and principles are seeds that develop throughout life.

Make a difference to students like Marcus by donating today.

Donate

